THORNY TICKETS.

Hard Work to Satisfy the Host of Contesting Candidates.

THE THIRD WARD FIGHT.

Judge Allen Announces His Vote There Is for Stratton.

MANY COMBINATIONS MADE.

Every Indication of an Exciting Election Next Saturday.

The tickets for Saturday's primary election are being prepared today and the intention is to have them in the field by the first thing Friday morning. This part of the work is about as thorny as any the candidates have to contend with and is furthermore fraught with much danger, for it is almost impossible to satisfy the host of those who want to get on board.

Every hour is bringing more strength to the Stratton end of the Senatorial fight and he is regarded now as a sure winner. A big card has been played in his behalf during the past few hours and it has resulted in an unqualified victory for him. This is the way it all came about.

In the Third Ward where the political center of gravity seems to be located, the Senatorial-Judicial swings have not hitherto been working very satisfactorily. Hall and Greene put up a combination to carry the ward and then to strengthen themselves took in Roeth for Supervisor and allied themselves with Stratton for Senator. This they thought ensured them victory, but there were clouds gathering that became more ominous as the hours wore on.

Dr Derrick with his Senatorial aspirations, Judge Allen and his friends, D. C. Brown, W. H. Friend and the other Supervisorial candidates and Judge Adams all began to come together in a combination that suddenly asumed such dimensions that it became threatening. Hall and Greene seeing this, tried to run to cover. They were willing to throw anybody and everybody overboard to save themselves, and knowing they could do nothing with Allen they made a play for Derrick. They first joined in the endeavor to get him into the Assembly fight instead of the Senatorial one and offered him the strength of their ticket if he would accept. But he declined and then in the hopes of capturing his influence in another way they offered to give him three of their delegates, thus throwing down Stratton to that extent. Derrick, however, wanted more—he said he would consider the proposition if he were given seven delegates.

Things were at this juncture last night when Stratton made a stand. He kicked not only over the traces but in a way that threatened destruction to the Hall-Greene Third Ward ticket. He told them what everybody admitted namely that the ward was for him and he did not propose to have any of his strength traded off to his opponent. He notified them therefor that he would have the full ticket or else he would have his own ticket in the ward. That settled it. The Hall-Greene forces backed down and the whole ticket was assured to Stratton again.

The next move that was expected in the matter was that Derrick would join hands with Allen in the Third, and that they would put up a ticket between them that would include all the candidates left off the Hall-Greene-Roeth-Stratton ticket. For a time many thought that this would go through, but this afternoon Judge Allen took a positive stand by announcing that the ticket he will have in the field there will be for Stratton. This therefor insures a victory for Stratton in the Third, for although Derrick will run a ticket of his own there it is conceded that either the Allen blanket ticket or the Hall-Greene ticket will win. Judge Allen and his friends are sanguine that they can make a big showing under their scheduled arrangement, and the Stratton forces are jubilant, for the ward is now assured to them and victory is in sight. In order to put the final touches to their fight in the ward, the Stratton people have sent out the following notice.

"You are invited to attend a conference of the Third Ward friends of F. S. Stratton, candidate for State Senator, to be held at Syndicate Hall, Thirteenth street, between Clay and Jefferson streets, on Thursday evening, September 17th, 1896, at 7 45 o'clock P M.

"As this will be the last meeting of Mr Stratton's supporters before the primary election, you are earnestly requested to be present and assist his interests by your advice.

"(Signed) R. W. Snow, C. W. Kellogg, W. S Baxter, A. S. Macdonald, A. L. McPherson, W N. Dimmick, Henry Maloon P. W. Belhngall, W. G. Manuel, W. H Chickering, Wallace Everson, D. E. Fortin, Marston Campbell, George W. Reed B. C. Cuvellier, J A. Britton, Sub-Committee Third Ward.

THEE TICKIETS.

There will be plenty of tickets for those participating in the primary to select from.

In the First Ward there will be three tickets—the straight Republican, the Pelouse and the independent ticket run by Breding, candidate for the Assembly.

In the Second Ward there will be a Stratton-Mitchell-Hall ticket and a Derrick ticket.

In the Third Ward there will be a Hall-Greene-Roeth-Stratton ticket, a Derrick ticket, and a blanket ticket for Allen, Brown, Friend and all those who are not on the Hall-Greene ticket.

In the Fourth Ward there will be a straight Republican ticket and possibly a Hall-Hill ticket.

In the Fifth Ward there will be a Stratton ticket and a Derrick ticket. Both tickets will be for Hall and Greene.

In the Sixth Ward there will be a straight Republican ticket and a Langan ticket.

In the Seventh Ward there will be a Derrick-Le Baliister ticket, a Stratton ticket and probably an independent ticket. The Stratton forces will probably take the independent ticket into camp by giving ten votes to the Allen people and if so only the Stratton and Derrick tickets will be in the field.

In Oakland Township there will be a straight Hill-Stratton ticket and a Hill-Hall-Greene ticket.

In Alameda there will be a Hunt ticket and a Greene-Langan ticket.

In Brooklyn there will be a Hall-Greene ticket and possibly a Langan ticket.

In Eden, Murray and Washington Townships the tickets will all be Langan.

HOW THE FIGHT STANDS.

The judicial candidates are making estimates of their strength, and as is customary on such occasions are in many instances claiming the same votes.

This is what the Hall-Greene people say they have at their disposal:

Second Ward	19
Third Ward	14
Fifth Ward	24
Seventh Ward	21
Alameda	17
Brooklyn	11
Oakland Township	23
Total	119

These figures are without any county votes, and Hall and Greene expect to get Washington Township anyhow, if the country vote goes to pieces.

Judge Allen's strength is estimated as follows:

First Ward	14
Third Ward	4
Fourth Ward	17
Sixth Ward	13
Oakland Township	19
Total	67

This is regarded as positive strength, in addition to which it is expected that Allen will get the 24 from Alameda, if Hunt retires, for Hunt objects to Greene and Hall having carried the war into his domain by putting up a Greene-Langan ticket, for it is well known that it means Greene-Hall in the long run.

Furthermore Judge Allen may get 17 votes in the Second Ward for Mitchell is only tied up to one Judge. So if all the plans go through Allen will have a strength of 117 exclusive of anything from the county.

Hall's strength exclusive of Greene is figured at 92.

Hill only has the Oakland Township vote of 37 in sight at present, but is figuring on some Alameda votes later on.

Langan's claims are as follows:

Eden Township	18
Murray Township	13
Washington Township	16
Total	47

In addition to these he expects to get 12 in the Sixth Ward and 24 in Alameda, making a total of 93.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Suspicious Circumstances at a West Oakland Place.

A Chinese Storekeeper Called on by the Police to Explain.

A fire which broke out at 2.15 o'clock this morning in the rear of a Chinese store at 1469 Seventh street is surrounded with such evidences of arson that Ah Ott, the proprietor, is locked up in the City Prison. He has not been charged yet and probably, through a lack of direct evidence, will not be.

When the department reached the fire a strong odor of coal oil came from the rear room in which the fire started, and after the flames were extinguished an examination showed a liberal supply of it on the floor.

The prisoner attributes this to two causes. The first is that a hanging lamp which he left burning when he went out and which he thinks caused the fire by falling to the floor, spilled some of the oil, and secondly he says that in filling the lamp he accidentally let some of it run over.

There was no one present when the fire started and several of the prisoner's acquaintances assert that he spent the night with one of his countrymen.

The building was a two story wooden structure and belonged to Mrs. Nettie Laymance. It was worth about $2500 and the damage will not exceed $200. The Chinaman's stock received some damage by smoke and water.

IN A BAD FIRE.

James Feehan at the Hospital in a Serious Condition.

James Feehan was brought to the Receiving Hospital this afternoon badly burned all over the body. He said that he lived in Berkeley and woke up last night with the house on fire and his bed blazing around him. The house is situated on College Way between Grant and Grove streets and was burned to the ground. Feehan's injuries are serious.

He had been on a prolonged debauch and despondency caused by drink was the probable cause that led him to take his life.

The pistol had been recently purchased, and was a 38-calibre affair. He was very well connected, and a member of the firm of which his father is the head.

NEARLY READY TO BUILD.

The New Home for the Acme Club Is Now in Sight.

The Papers Will Be Signed Today and Work Commenced at Once.

This afternoon the final papers are to be signed by the President and Secretary of the Acme Club and Julius Abrahamson, whereby the latter will erect a fine new home for the club on the old Synagogue site.

The building will probably be four stories in height, though Architect May has not yet completed his plans. The first, or ground floor, will contain several commodious stores, which will be rented out, leaving the remainder of the entire building to the club.

The basement will be made into a fine swimming tank, the full depth of the building, and will be supplied with heated water when desired.

The gymnasium, reception card and billiard rooms, with the offices, will be located above the stores.

The club will lease the building for a period of ten years, paying on the average of $200 per month, though for the first few years only $175 per month will be charged.

As soon as the plans are completed work will be commenced, and the building will be in readiness for occupancy within three months.

A BID FOR AMERICA.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The St James Gazette this afternoon published a leading editorial article headed: "A New Triple Alliance."

The Gazette points out the menacing tone of the Continental semi-official press on the subject of Turkey, and says: "We are openly threatened with joint hostile European action if we interfere (in Turkey) against the will of the powers.

"But there is one combination which British statesmanship might effect. Two States which have little to gain from Russia could act with us and end the tension.

"The United States and Italy are both understood to be friendly to Russia. Nevertheless, neither is yet too deeply involved to be able to assume an independent attitude under British inspiration.

"Why should not England, the United States and Italy form a new Dreibund? Alone of the nations of the earth, the people of the United States can understand the impulse which would drive Englishmen to war in order to suppress tyranny or rescue the oppressed.

"Plenty of Americans would regard with enthusiasm the spectacle of the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes floating side by side in the Bosphorus to back their joint demand."

The Gazette says Italy is ready to join England if invited, and concludes: "It might be expected the Russian combination would go to peaces at the mere aspect of this genuine League of Peace, and the new Dreibund might lead to a fresh grouping of the powers and the delivery of Europe both from Turkish misrule and the dangerous thralldom of Russia into which it is sinking."

A RATE NOW.

A Formidable Protest by the New York Produce Exchange.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The New York Produce Exchange has filed an important complaint against the railroads comprising the Joint Traffic Association which carry produce to the seaboard, charging them with making rates and regulations and giving terminal privileges for the purpose of diverting traffic which would naturally go to New York to other seaboard cities, including Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, Newport News, and Boston.

The complaint argues for an investigation and the establishment by the Commission of just rates, charges, etc. for inter-state transportation from Chicago, Buffalo, and the West to seaboard cities and markets.

THE COAST WILL WIN.

One of the New Warships Sure to Be Built Here.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Acting Secretary McAdoo has cabled Secretary Herbert in England particulars of the bidding for the construction of three 11,000 ton battleships.

If the Secretary so orders, the awards will be made at once.

The bidders are pressing earnestly for a speedy decision in order that they may take advantage of the present favorable rates for structural material to make contracts for future delivery and the department is disposed to accede to the request, although according to the terms of the advertisement calling for the proposals the awards may be delayed until October 9th.

The bids received have been examined by the Board of Bureau Chiefs and by the law officer of the department and found to be regular in all essential points.

There is little doubt the contracts will go to the Newport News Company, Cramp & Sons, and Union Iron Works, San Francisco.

A MASS MEETING.

Suffragists Will Assemble at the Tabernacle Tomorrow Evening.

Amidst a bower of yellow blossoms, palms and potted plants, against a patriotic background of national flags, the doctrines of the Political Equality Association will be discussed tomorrow evening by the Rev. Anna Shaw and Mrs. Carrie Chapman-Catt at Mills Tabernacle.

Rev. Dr. McLean, honorary president of the Alameda County Association for Political Equality, will preside. The music will be furnished by a cornetist and assemblage singing. This will be the biggest mass meeting the suffragists have held and members of all political organizations are invited to attend.

The suffragists are now hard at work organizing plans for the campaign and the present results are most encouraging. The Lecture Bureau of which Miss Mollie Conners is chairman, receives numerous applications for speakers and the chairman announces that nearly all the political clubs throughout the county are desirous of having women speakers on the suffrage question.

Alameda is making active preparations for a mass meeting. In Haywards, Lorin, Temescal and Golden Gate interest is aroused in the movement and branch societies are being organized. Next Friday evening Rev Anna Shaw, Miss Mollie Conners, editor of Saturday Night, Mrs. Woodhams, Mrs. L. G. Judd and others will attend a meeting in Haywards.

MOVING THE POSTOFFICE.

Three Bids Are Put in for the Handling of the Mails.

There is a movement on foot to change the location of the Post Office which is at present located at Seventeenth and Broadway. The lease of the present building expires November 30th and there are three bidders for the new lease. Julius Abrahamson has made a proposition for the removal of the office to his new building on Thirteenth and Clay streets. The Albany Hotel management is also offering accommodations at reduced rates and will give three stores including that of J. L. Lyon, the former furniture dealer. This location is centrally located and convenient to business men and there will be plenty of room for the increasing demands of the office. The Albany is the property of William J Dingee who also owned the Cameron Block on Fourteenth street which was used as a post office for a number of years.

The owners of the present quarters are anxious to retain the post office and will make a bid for it. No decision has been made by the United States Special Post Office Agent in San Francisco and the future locality is uncertain at present. The Postmaster expects to receive word at any time concerning the future location of the office.

"We have nothing to do with the selection of accommodations," said the Assistant Postmaster today, "but we expect a notification of a new lease every day now. Our present quarters are somewhat cramped but are light and airy. As soon as the sealed bids are opened and decided upon, the Special Agent will notify us."

THE DYNAMITERS.

Preliminary Preparations Made for the Trial in London.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The British embassy has formally requested the French Government to detain Tynan pending the arrival from England of documents necessary to make a demand for his extradition in regular form.

Tynan, up to last evening, had not applied for protection at the United States embassy and there is considerable doubt whether he has been naturalized as an American citizen.

The report that Alex. Sullivan of Chicago, the Irish leader, has been arrested here is untrue.

BELL OFF TO LONDON.

GLASGOW, Sept. 16.—Edward Bell, the American arrested on a charge of participating with Tynan, Kennedy and Haines in the dynamite conspiracy to blow up the residence of Queen Victoria at Balmoral while the Czar was her guest, was handed over to Scotland Yard detectives this morning and taken to London.

TAKEN TO ST. MARY'S.

The Remains of Henry Summers Are Laid to Rest.

The remains of the late Henry Summers were laid to rest today in St. Mary's Cemetery. The funeral services were held in St. Francis De Sales Church and were very solemn and impressive. Requiem high mass was celebrated at half past nine o'clock. Father McSweeney was celebrant, while Fathers Cull and Butler were deacon and sub-deacon respectively. At the conclusion of the mass, Father McSweeney delivered an impressive and eloquent funeral address.

The remains were escorted to the church by a delegation of Volunteer Fireman. Summers was a member of the first police force ever organized in this city and was a man who had the esteem and friendship of all who knew him. His pall-bearers were selected from his former comrades in the police force and from his friends. From the police force were Captain Wilson, Detective Shorey and Special Officer Ruskin; the remaining three pall-bearers were Frank Ball, P. J. O'Connor and J. P. Deems.

DAVIE MAY FIGHT IT.

Speculation as to the $1.14 City Tax Levy Ordinance.

THE MAYOR WILL NOT TALK.

Bassett, Though, Says That a Dollar Is Enough.

OTHERS ARE NON-COMMITTAL.

The New Schedule Comes Up for Discussion This Evening.

Every indication points to another fight for a dolar tax rate and while arguments in favor of it may not be made at the meeting of the committee of the whole this evening it is lying dormant and will come forth before the ordinance is finally adopted.

Tonight's meeting is held simply to hear the statements of the various departments which have not been invited to attend the secret conferences heretofore held at which $1.14 was decided upon as the rate which would produce a sufficient amount to conduct the affairs of the city.

The Mayor will undoubtedly oppose this rate. He has not openly said so lately but at the expiration of the last fiscal year in recounting the expenses of the city he said that the dollar limit was sufficient. This year he refuses to discuss the matter at all.

But his stand can be pretty clearly figured on by a statement made by Bassett this morning. Bassett was asked what he thought of the $1.14 rate. "It won't stand," he replied, "a dollar limit is just what we shall have."

Bassett is the only one who has so openly declared himself. Kaufman, like the Mayor, is silent and Watkinson has not set his figure. "I don't know whether I shall vote for the $1.14 rate ordinance or not," he says. "I have only been to one of the meetings of the Committee and then only stayed about fifteen minutes. I am a low tax man though and it seems to me we can make all the necessary improvements on less than $1.14."

Heitmann and Brosnahan are both open to conviction. "We want enough to run the city on and make some improvements," they say, "but as yet we are not convinced what amount is necessary. If a dollar won't do it we should vote for more."

All of the other members are in favor of the ordinance as it stands. There are enough to pass it to print anyhow and if a fight against it is made it will not begin until the measure goes to the Mayor for his signature.

TROUBLE FOR TEACHERS.

The Proposed Appropriation Not Enough for Salaries.

Efforts to Get the Council to Open the City's Purse Strings.

There is a long woeful wail brewing in the educational department and a law suit looming up in the distance if the Council sticks to the two cent allowance which it has apportioned to meet the expenses of the city Grammar Schools. The directors say they will not have enough money to pay the teachers' salaries and under their contract with the city there is no provision to take nothing if the fund is exhausted. Such a provision went with the teachers' employment contract two years ago but now they are hired by the year unconditionally.

The Board in its estimate asked for a little more than Auditor Snow allowed it but he figured that $215,000 would be necessary to conduct the schools and that the city's share of this should be four and a fraction cents on the dollar income.

Superintendent McClymonds is reticent about saying anything but admits that things at present look blue. "The amount we have this year," he said, "is over $20,000 less than the sum allowed last year, and we had but little to spare then. I do not fear, however, that we will have any shortage, for I think the Council will see the error of its ways and allow us more money. If, not, of course the teachers will sue the city when their pay is not forthcoming."

Assistant Secretary York, who takes a deep interest in school finances looks for nothing less than a big law suit at the end of the year.

The Council's action in cutting down the Auditor's estimate was nothing but an arbitrary slaughter and was done without looking into the matter at all. That is from the inside," he said. "It means that we will not have enough for teachers' salaries for about two months, and of course the teachers will be entitled to their pay even if we close the schools. The county has cut us one cent and our money will be very short at the end of the term."

RUSHING IT THROUGH.

The Contra Costa Road Will Be Ready in About Three Weeks.

The new road between this city and Contra Costa County is being built as rapidly as a large force of men and teams can grade it. Work was commenced near the Medau property three weeks ago and has proceeded uninterruptedly under the direction of Supervisor Talcott. It was thought, at one time, that the progress of the work would be interfered with because State Labor Commissioner Fitzgerald made objection to the men working ten instead of eight hours a day.

It is estimated that at the present rate of progress in the work the new road over the hills will be completed in about three weeks.

Rehearsals Start.

The first rehearsal of the season of the First Congregational Orchestra was held last evening with an attendance of nearly fifty members, and from the work done it is expected that the orchestra will put upon the stage at the concert next week not only the largest, but the finest, ensemble of players that has yet appeared at any of its concerts.

A FIGHT FOR CHILDREN.

Opposition to the Order in the N. S. Watson Case.

The Affair Will Be Disposed of With the Divorce Monday.

The troubles which have disrupted the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Watson of Alameda will be fully aired before Judge Greene Monday next, and, anticipating that event, the Court this morning made an order touching the temporary disposition of their two children.

In June of this year, Mrs. Watson sued her husband, who is secretary of the California Powder Works, San Francisco, for divorce. The care and custody of the children, a boy aged 12 years, and a girl aged 10 years were given to the mother, the father being denied access to them.

Yesterday evening affidavits were filed in the Superior Court setting forth alleged improper conduct on the part of Mrs. Watson as a ground for relieving her of the charge of her offspring.

As a consequence of the showing made Dr. Thomas Carpenter of Alameda, was appointed guardian of the little ones and directed to immediately take them from the custody of the mother.

This morning the matter came up again before Judge Ogden when Mrs. Watson was represented by Attorney Earl. The Court stated that he had conferred with Judge Frick on the subject and he had concluded to modify the order of yesterday appointing Carpenter guardian of the children. He said he would order that the mother should be given control of the children until Monday next when the divorce case will come up for trial.

Mr. Earl wanted to know whether Dr. Carpenter would be likely to contest the matter and Judge Ogden replied that he did not think there would be any contest on the Doctor's part.

An order thereupon was issued directed to Dr. Carpenter to surrender the little ones to their mother.

Mr. Earl said that the children are temporarily quartered at the Chabot Home.

NOONE FEELS BETTER.

The District Attorney Moves to Dismiss His Case.

District Attorney Snook made a motion before Judge Frick, sitting in Judge Greene's court, this morning, to dismiss the case against M. J. Noone, charged with selling liquor between midnight and 5 o'clock in the morning. The defendant had been found guilty in the Police Court.

Judge Frick declined to grant the motion, preferring to leave the case to be passed on by Judge Greene.

The ground on which the District Attorney based his motion was the fact that since the conviction of Noone in the Police Court a new ordinance regulating the closing of saloons at night has been put into effect. Such being the case he held that a conviction in the Superior Court could not be obtained.

THE KNOX FIRE.

Great Damage Done Both to the House and the Furniture.

The damage caused by the fire which broke out at 8:30 o'clock last night in the residence of Dr. Myra Knox at 958 Fourteenth street will amount to more than was at first surmised and probably will not fall far short of the $3,000 policy which the Phoenix Insurance Company carried on the place. The flames burned out the back of the house and the roof, besides doing some damage in the upper rooms. The principal loss was caused by water. The dining room was paneled with hand carved oak, done by Mrs. Knox's daughter. This is completely spoiled by water. The flooring on the lower floor is of hard wood, which is badly damaged and the plastering and papering in every room will have to be replaced.

The fire broke out in the servant's room, a small apartment built on to the rear of the house, and was caused by an overturned lamp.

Mrs Phail Favored.

There are a number of applicants for the position of matron at the Receiving Hospital, but it is understood that the choice as successor to Mrs. Bailey, the present incumbent, has fallen upon Mrs. Grace McPhail.

HOPING FOR HILL.

Bryan's Friends Are Trying to Squelch the Faction Fight.

THE CONVENTION AT BUFFALO.

Populists Agree on Fusion in New York State.

ALTGELD WINS A POINT.

Bryan Is Now Engaged in Storming the Sunny South.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Though they are absent in a body, the leadership of Senators Hill and Murphy and W. F. Sheehan, may be felt in the Democratic State Convention today.

Rumors were current early in the day that all night the wires had been carrying communications between the Senators and other old time leaders and various lieutenants now in this city, purpose being to bring about a modification of the resolution on the financial question and an endorsement of Bryan and Sewall.

It appears that two sets of resolutions have been prepared for submission to the Convention. One Elliot Danforth has in charge, is said to have the approval of Senators Hill and Murphy and Chairman Jones of the National Committee.

Jones, it is said, is willing to accept the qualified endorsement of the Chicago Convention's work, if thereby the nomination of the gold standard Democratic ticket can be avoided.

Congressman Sulzer and other radical silverites declare, however, there shall be not half hearted endorsement and the party must be freed from the domination of those designated as kickers.

The assertion is further made that a State organization will be made up independent of those who took part in the revolt at Chicago.

FUSION EFFECTED.

The fusion of the Populist and Democratic parties of New York State is an important result of the conference today.

For the active support of the ticket to be named by the Democratic State Convention the Populists will be given five representatives upon the electors' ticket and two Congressmen.

The Populists assert their union with the Democracy will result in Bryan and Sewall carrying New York by a large majority.

THE CONVENTION MEETS.

At 12.30 Chairman Hinckley rapped the convention to order.

State Senator Thomas F. Grady, temporary Chairman, addressed the convention, saying: "As loyal representatives of the Democratic constituencies, you have assembled again to declare your faith in Democratic principles, your respect for Democratic authority and your confidence in Democratic success.

"In this respect you differ from some who were for many years associated with you, using their profession of Democracy as a mask under which to conceal the purely selfish character of their political actions, and who are now leagued with your political opponents, denouncing Democratic principles, defying Democratic authority, and aiding in so far as they may to defeat the Democratic candidates.

"It is sham Democracy which submits to the will of the majority only when no selfish interest is affected or sacrificed by so doing.

"It is a sham Democracy which sets up the opinions of the few as entitled to control because of the wealth or culture or pedigree of those by whom such opinions are held.

"It is a sham Democracy which has for its purpose the undue enrichment of the man who relies for support upon what his money earns for him and the consequent unjust impoverishment of the citizen who depends upon what his labor may be able to earn.

"It is a sham Democracy which yesterday asked a bimetallic standard upon the single condition of international agreement and today confesses such a declaration was but a subterfuge with which to deceive those who are honestly favoring such a standard, and that at the time its purpose was to establish and maintain the supremacy of gold."

Grady alluded to Governor McKinley as "a mortgaged candidate" and spurned the allegation that the Chicago platform was "a declaration favoring repudiation, riot and ruin."

Grady's address was frequently applauded, particularly the allusions to the Democrats who had taken ground against the Chicago nominees and platform.

The roll call showed contests in Albany, Monroe, Wayne and Wyoming Counties.

Ridgeway offered a resolution which was referred to the Committee on Platform endorsing the work of the Chicago convention and pledging hearty and honest support of its nominees.

After the committees were named the convention took a recess until 10 A. M. tomorrow.

Members of the Albany delegation circulated a protest against the nomination of John Boyd Thatcher on the ground that at the Saratoga Convention he declared himself for the gold standard and no recantation of that avowal has since come from him.

The announcement has been made that Tammany will throw its influence in favor of Thatcher's nomination for Governor.

In all but the Fourth District the nominees are in the present Congress. Representative Reybura of the Fourth was opposed by Senator Quay, hence Young received the nomination.

GOLD MEN STEP OUT.

Gathering of the Democrats in State Convention in Connecticut.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.—The Democratic State Convention, which assembled today, began business with every indication of being as memorable an occasion as has ever arisen in the political history of Connecticut.

While the delegates numbering 800 were almost solidly for the endorsement of the Chicago platform and candidates, the whole machinery of the party was in the hands of the gold standard men.

Anticipating an upset the twelve members of the State Central Committee resigned.

It was rumored today before the convention met that there would be a bolt of gold standard men.

Chairman David of the State Central Committee called the convention to order.

William Kennedy, temporary chairman, aroused tumultuous cheering by praising the Chicago platform and candidates.

The temporary officers were made permanent.

After Chairman Kennedy handed in the resignations of the Gold State Committeemen delegates he moved they be accepted with the "thanks of the Convention."

The motion was adopted amid loud cheering.

The new State Committee was appointed, all the members of which are in accord with the declarations of the convention on the currency question.

Presidential Electors were selected and the following nominations for State offices made:

Governor, James B. Sargent; Lieutenant-Governor, S. A. Crandall; Secretary of State, Homer S. Cummings.

QUAY'S HOT FIGHT.

He Is Beaten Out in the Sheriff's Convention at Philadelphia.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—Republican Congressional, Senatorial, Representative and County Conventions were held in this city today.

The hardest contest in the history of the party in Philadelphia resulted.

The fight between the Quay and anti-Quay forces has been waged for months.

In the Sheriff's Convention, the anti-Quay, or "Administration" faction won, nominating James L. Miles by 671 votes against 349 for Alexander Crow Jr., leader of the Quayites. There was much excitement, the police being called in to preserve order.

The following Congressional nominations were made: First District: Henry H. Bingham; Second: Robert Adams Jr.; Third: J. Frederick Halterman; Fourth: James Rankin Young; Fifth: Alfred C. Harmer.

AN EARLY START.

Bryan Gets a Warm Welcome in the Tennessee Towns.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 16.—William J. Bryan began work at 2 o'clock this morning with a speech at Somerset, a Republican stronghold, to 500 citizens.

They cheered loudly. Bryan said if between now and election day they would get up as early as they did this morning, and work as hard in behalf of the cause of Democracy as he worked yesterday, there would be no question of the success of the cause. He asked them to study the financial question.

At Oliver Springs a Reception Committee from Knoxville got on the train. There was a stop of two hours at Knoxville.

All night people had been coming by excursion trains and farmers for miles around had driven in.

The oldest citizens could not remember when such a crowd had gathered to greet any man.

The train arrived at Knoxville shortly before 8 o'clock. Bryan was taken immediately to a speaker's stand erected in front of the Court House, and was introduced by ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor.

On the stand were seated Judge Clark of the United States District Court, Chief Justice D. L. Snodgrass of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, W. D. Beard, W. C. Caldwell, W. K. McAllister and J. S. Wilkes, Associate Judges of the same court.

Bryan's appearance was the signal for tremendous applause.

ALL SETTLED.

Democratic Electors Resign and the Fusion Is Perfected.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—The last obstacle to complete fusion on Presidential Electors in Illinois between Silver Democrats and Populists has been removed and fusion finally effected.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee today Chairman Hinrichsen announced he had received the resignations of three Democratic Electoral candidates. Their places will be given to Populists.

On the State ticket, W. F. Beck's resignation as a nominee for Auditor, was accepted and A. L. Maxwell, a Populist nominee named in his place.

IN ALTGELD'S FAVOR.

The Head of the Ticket Left Blank by Illinois Populists.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—After nine hours' exciting debate the Populist Convention tacitly endorsed Governor Altgeld by leaving the head of the ticket blank.

The following are the nominations: Lieutenant-Governor, Henry D. Lloyd; Secretary of State, L. A. Quellmalz; Auditor, Grant Dunbar; Attorney-General, E. I. Burdick; State Treasurer, Joseph Schweizgen; Trustee State University, Mrs. Fannie Kavanaugh; Electors-at-large, A. H. Allen, O. L. Beirs.

The platform says: "We do most heartily endorse the wisdom of the National Convention in the nomination of Thomas E. Watson for Vice-President of the United States and most emphatically denounce any action which prevents the Populists of any State from the privilege of casting their ballot for him."

The remaining Presidential Electors will be presented to the State Executive Committee by each Congressional District.

"WILDLY RADICAL."

One Who Knows Bryan Well Decries His Presidential Ambition.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—In the Republican County Convention here one of the principal speakers was Judge Richard Yates of Jacksonville, Ill., son of War Governor Yates of Illinois, who took occasion to say that from his association with Mr. Bryan as school mate and townsman he knew him to be unfit for the office of President.

Later, when asked by a Star reporter to explain his statement, Judge Yates said: "I mean that Mr. Bryan's disposition to be extremely and wildly radical and uncompromising on any question. He was the bitter champion of everything he believed when a youth and could see no good in anything opposed to his theories. I mean that if he is elected and it should become evident that free coinage wouldn't do, Mr. Bryan will persist in having free coinage. He is an enthusiast who sticks to his enthusiasm."

Bourke Cochran to Speak.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—Hon. Bourke Cockran will speak in Kansas City on October 7th during Carnival week, according to the statement of Judge J. McD. Trimble of the National Democratic Club of Jackson County. Although the programme of Mr. Cockran's day in Kansas City has not been arranged, the Auditorium, the largest house in the city, has already been secured for the occasion.

C. R. BENNETT'S DOWNFALL

The Ex-Secretary Will Be Brought Up for Sentence Tomorrow.

Judge Ogden Will Then Dispose of the George Gray Matter.

C. R. Bennett's time has come. He has figured in many capacities before courts in this State and tomorrow he will appear before Judge Ogden to be sentenced to the penitentiary for attempting to murder George Gray. It is expected, unless something unlooked for transpires, that this will bring to a close a strife and vendetta which has existed during the past three years between the Gray and Bennett families.

Gray accused Bennett of leading his daughter astray, and one night in front of the City Hall three years ago, sought to kill him by firing several shots from a revolver. Bennett found safety in flight. Little more than a year ago Gray again sought to shoot Bennett in a broad gauge car. The bullet went astray. Bennett fled from the car. He returned, however, in a short time and fired a shot at Gray, but the bullet struck another man than the one whom it had been aimed. Gray was arrested on the charge of attempting to commit murder and was acquitted.

Bennett was then arrested. He was charged with assault to commit murder. He was tried and found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon. He was granted a new trial on the ground that the verdict was not supported by the evidence. He was then found guilty as charged, namely, of assault to commit murder. He moved for a new trial on the ground that he had been acquitted by the former verdict of the charge of assault to commit murder and had been twice placed in jeopardy for that offense. The motion was granted and the prosecution then appealed to the Supreme Court.

The opinion of that tribunal, which has just been received, was written by Justice Garoutte and closes as follows:

"While it is true the constitution declares that no man is to be twice placed in jeopardy for the same offense, still as Mr. Bishop says: 'The law's methods must be pursued by him who seeks the protection of the law' and this the defendant has not done. Again, the fact that the first trial was had in the same court and before the same judge as the second trial and before the same judge as the second trial, in no way excused the necessity of the plea of once in jeopardy. The whole question of once in jeopardy was entirely foreign to the case, unless raised by a special plea, and when so raised an issue of fact was presented which the jury alone possessed the power to pass upon. For the foregoing reasons the order granting a new trial is reversed and the case remanded."

The Stock Market.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The stock market opened quiet and irregular, with changes, mainly advances. Sugar and Manhattan, ex-dividends 3 and 1½ per cent respectively, gained ½ per cent each on light transactions. The industrial group was selected as a vulnerable point of attack by the bears, and under liberal offerings reacted sharp fractions. The depression was communicated to the general list. Foreign orders are very slim.

Silver is 65½ and lead 2.60.

Watson Wanted.

Sheriff White this morning received a message from Mission San Jose that a man named George Watson, who had been working on Ruiney's ranch, had stolen a small gray horse and buggy from a minister of that place.

The name of the minister was not given.

LOCATED AN OPIUM DEN.

It Has Been Running in Full Blast on the East Side.

One of the Smokers Taken to Jail and More Arrests Will Follow.

Constable Quinlan has discovered an opium den in full blast in Fruitvale and today placed behind the bars a man named Charles Bernal whom he arrested in the very act of smoking the pipe. Bernal was brought to the County Jail with the full smoking outfit which he was found using, and District Attorney Snook has prepared a complaint charging him with frequenting a place maintained for the purpose of selling opium for smoking purposes.

The prisoner feels that he is in a bad box and has promised, if dealt with leniently, to give up information which will tend to the breaking up of the den which, he says, is frequented by white men and Chinese who reside in the neighborhood.

The joint is run by a Chinaman named Hong Lee and is located off the county road between Thirty-seventh and Fruitvale avenues. It is said that the place has been in operation for some time but has been conducted in so quiet a manner as not to have aroused the suspicion of the Constable until a few days ago. Since his attention was called to the place, Quinlan has watched it closely and today noticed a man going into the joint with a great deal of circumspection.

After the man had been in there for some time, Quinlan entered the house and, when he addressed the Chinaman in charge as to what had become of the man he had seen enter, was met with a silence and a stare of astonishment which was really remarkable.

Quinlan smelt the drug and knew that it was being smoked in one of the rooms of the place. He opened the doors of several of the apartments but found nobody. Finally, he tried a door which was locked on the inside. He demanded that the door be opened but received no response. He then burst it open and found Bernal just about getting under the effects of the drowsy drug. Even the arrest of the smoker could not phase the Chinaman. Bernal's arrest will have the effect of temporarily breaking up the joint, and it is expected that evidence will be forthcoming that will lead to the arrest of Hong Lee the proprietor.

A BUTCHERS' PICNIC.

An Enjoyable Outing Is to Be Taken Sunday to San Jose.

The Journeymen Butchers never do anything by halves and, as a consequence, in their forthcoming excursion, Sunday next, to San Jose, they have made arrangements for an outing on a grand scale which will be a source of pleasure to thousands of people.

The excursion will be under the auspices of San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Lodges Nos. 1, 2 and 3, Journeymen Butchers' Benevolent and Protective Association of the Pacific Coast.

It is the intention to run trains on the Broad Gauge road, leaving Third and Valencia streets, San Francisco, at 9 o'clock in the morning; and by the Narrow Gauge, leaving this city from Fourteenth and Webster streets at 8:45 A. M.

The fare for the round trip will be only one dollar. This is a remarkably low rate and places the ride, with admission to the picnic and barbecue, within reach of all. The barbecue alone will be worth the price of the round trip ticket. It will be held in Agricultural Park where provisions have been made to accommodate thousands of people.

The returning train will leave San Jose at 6:45 P. M.

A Fourth Ward Call.

A Republican rally will be held under the auspices of the Fourth Ward Republican Club at its club rooms, corner Eighth and Market streets, on Friday evening next. PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SACRAMENTO, July 20, 1896.

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California, at its thirty-first session, beginning on the seventh day of January, A. D. 1895, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, proposed the following prescribed amendments to the Constitution of the State of California, to-wit:

Amendment Number One.

(Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 23.)

The Legislature may provide for a reduction from credits of debts due bona fide residents of this State.

Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association, whose capital stock is not fully paid up, shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder or shareholder, as the amount unpaid upon the stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole amount unpaid upon the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association during the term of office of such Director or Trustee.

WAR AGAINST MICROBES.

Novel School Regulations by Indiana's Health Board.

Remarkable Precautions for the Prevention of Disease.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 16.—The Indiana State Board of Health has caught the microbe fever and has issued a set of rules to govern the public and private schools of the State, which will, if enforced, turn the schools topsy-turvy.

Under these rules the slate and slate pencil of yore will go. Instead must be used paper pads and lead pencils.

Pencils and pens, and desks must be disinfected every day.

The floors, windows and woodwork of the schools must be scrubbed every day with disinfectants.

Banisters and tops of tables must be treated with a disinfectant once a week.

No unwashed boy or girl must be admitted.

Open water buckets for drinking are forbidden. The water must be drawn from a faucet and a small cup used.

A general anathema is pronounced against all children who "whoop" or otherwise cough, who have sore mouths, or who exhibit cutaneous evidence of disease.

The action of the Board has created a sensation in school circles. It is not believed the orders will be obeyed.

WEDNESDAY...SEPTEMBER 16, 1896

During the month of August the stringency in the New York money market led to an increase in the aggregate circulation of the national banks in that month and September from $225,942,455 to $230,725,376. The latter figure is greater than at any time since 1889, when it was $229,000,000. The increase of notes marks a certain degree of elasticity, but not so much of it as is needed. This money went into business channels. This elasticity of the National banking system is ont of its best features. Every dollar put out was as good as gold.

Dr. Nansen, on the arrival of the Fram at Christiania was greeted with an extraordinary popular demonstration. The city was gaily decorated and everything possible was done to express the honor in which the citizens held the returning explorer. Great enthusiasm was manifested. Among those who took part in the demonstration was 12,000 members of the Guilds, many students, etc. They formed a guard of honor along the route leading to the castle where Nansen was cordially welcomed. Here a banquet was tendered to him and he was decorated by the King and by the Crown Prince.

The World some days ago predicted that Sewall would come off the Democratic ticket and that Watson's name would be put on after the Maine election. Mr. Sewall was a National banker, and the Populists correctly assumed that he could not be in favor of abolishing the National Banks as they desire. He had been a railroad president, and they knew he could not sympathize with their plan for governmental ownership of railroads. He is a "protectionist," a "corporationist," the possessor of a comfortable fortune, and opposed to an income tax, which they favor. Therefore the Populists "had no use for him." Watson has been heaving rocks at Sewall for the last month. Now the trajectory rocks will increase.

In a recent letter to the New York Tribune Andrew Carnegei remarks upon the millions of spindles standing idle, upon iron mines closed, upon furnaces blown out, and upon every manufacturing concern in the country running with reduced forces. Then he adds: "There is only one reason for this paralysis in business, and that is the threat of reckless, ignorant men to lower the standard of money." And then the Boston Herald rises to remark "Only one reason," be it observed, is the language of the eminent manufacturer in treating of the business depression, and that reason the currency! It is refreshing to find so intelligent a gentleman, with such thoroughly practical knowledge upon the subject, agreeing with those who have argued that this distress is not to be assigned to the tariff. He leaves that out of the subject, and attributes it solely to the currency."

An Inspector of Customs has recently described some of the fashionable ways of cheating the revenue. There was a wealthy woman who went back and forth on the ocean steamers three or four times a year. We suspected her, because from inquiries on land we found she had no visible means of income and knew no people except tradesmen. We watched her on these trips, but could find nothing in her baggage. To be sure of this we had inspectors, one after another, run through her trunk. The bottom, sides and leather top were plugged, but nothing could we find. One day a female inspector called me. "That woman is among the passengers again," said she.

"What woman?" I asked.

"The woman with the grapes on her hat," said she.

"The grapes on her hat!" repeated I, as my eyes rested upon the familiar walking hat. And why does she wear grapes always?"

"Unless we are sure of our ground we dare not subject passengers to unpleasantness. I was not sure, and subterfuge was my only resort. Brushing past her with a big valise on my shoulder, I managed to hit her hat. With a cry she put her hands on her head.

"It is nothing, madam," said the inspectress, "but one of your grapes. It is broken."

"My grapes!" gasped the woman.

"Yes, and, madam, you doubtless knew that this diamond was inside of it. Step into this office, please."

The Warning of a Patriot.

General Francis E. Spinner was treasurer of the United States during the Civil War, and for many years thereafter. During the most trying financial crisis that this country has ever experienced, his wise and conservative course won for him the reputation of one of the great financiers of the world. During his last days, he manifested the keenest interest in financial questions, and especially that of free silver coinage, warning the country that such a measure would precipitate a financial panic. His last article was published in Leslie's Weekly. Here is the closing paragraph:

"I am nearly eight-eight years old, and for more than half a century have watched and taken an interest in the monetary and commercial affairs of our country. I have no interest of friends or self to subserve. I am standing confronting an open grave, and expect soon to sink into one. I love my country greatly, and I love its people more. The prosperity of our country and the happiness of its people that now are, and of the generations that are to follow are the subjects of solicitude nearest my heart. I cannot bear to sink into that grave without giving this my last solemn warning. If the country would avoid a great calamity let it restore gold to be the sole standard of values, and the consequent measure of all transferable commodities. Fortify the United States Treasury with gold coin, gradually replace the warehouse silver certificates with Treasury notes of all denominations, from a five-cent to a thousand-dollar note, based upon and redeemable from the gold on deposit in the Treasury. Issue low interest bearing interchangeable currency bonds. This currency would not only have the gold in the Treasury, but all that sixty-five million people possess, as a guarantee for its redemption. Such an arrangement of the currency would constitute the Treasury of the United States into a safe insurance office against commercial revulsions and monetary panics. On the other hand, an ill constituted and depreciated circulating medium, a dual standard of values, a redundant, inflated currency, based on a greatly depreciated silver coin, such as the silver cranks desire, are the she-wolves that will breed and litter want of confidence, distrust, fears, failures, and panics upon our country, and disaster and ruin upon our people. The monetary course now being pursued is as sure to bring disaster as effect follows cause. Let the people be warned of the danger that is before them."

Los Angeles "Herald" and Agricultural College.

When the Los Angeles Herald brings out its blunderbuss it may hit a barn or a stuffed figure or wildly shoot into the air. When the Alliance Club of this city went to Los Angeles that paper published a tissue of misrepresentations about the whole affair. Common decency, if not common courtesy, would have suggested that it should tell the truth. But the strain might have been too great.

Now and again it maligns the College of Agriculture. It reiterates that the College is not doing its share of the educational work because its list of graduates is a small one. That is not the fault of that department. It is the fault of the farmers of the State, who do not send their boys there to be educated.

The Agricultural College of Massachusetts is a separate institution located at Amherst, where there is one of the best all round college institutions in the country. But there are no long lists of graduates there. Not so many from year to year as could be counted on ones fingers.

But in neither instance is the institution a failure because it is educating the community. The Agricultural College is doing good work in various parts of the State. It has already added more to the productive value of agriculture here than the institution has ever cost. It is now about time that the Herald should get out its horn and toot for the division of the State.

The Populist record in Colorado ought to secure the defeat of that ticket this year. Waite has been nominated. The Executive Committee of the Business Men's League of Denver composed of Republicans and Democrats, declared in 1894 that Populist rule there had utterly prostrated the credit of the State and that it had destroyed not less than $300,000,000 of values. It was pointed out that Colorado's credit once stood so high that in the census of 1890 its borrowing power ranked next to that of New York, but this borrowing power was paralyzed "by the accidental ascendancy of a party standing for repudiation and flatism." A further object lesson illustrating the blighting effect of Populism was presented in the statement that the property of Denver was assessed at $100,000,000, and was actually worth three times that great total, when the fateful Populists obtained power in the State, but the average selling price of this property, pending the overthrow of Waiteism, which is one of the many synonyms of Populism, had fallen off two thirds. At least half of the shrinkage was directly due "to the destruction of confidence by Populist misrule."

A citizen of Scranton writes to the Washington Times. "We are trying an interesting experiment in our town." "It is a municipal employment bureau, where both applicants for employment and persons in need of help in their homes or business may register their wants without charge. The new department entails not one cent of extra expense upon the city, except the trifling cost of a registry book. The bureau is in charge and under the control of the Police Department, and all the labor connected with it is done by officers already on the payroll of the municipality. Thus the scheme will not involve the employment of extra help. Was any such experiment ever tried in Oakland? And why not?

Senator Hill gets a great many punches in his political ribs just now. He is, says the Syracuse Post, "between the devil and the deep sea. As a man of intelligence and education, he understands the pernicious effect of the free-silver movement. He has denounced it in public, and he did all in his power at Chicago to prevent the Convention from declaring for it. But Senator Hill is also a machine politician. He worships the fetich of party regularity; it has been his boast that he has stood by the ticket through good and ill repute; he has gone down to defeat under the party flag, and like a machine politician, he clings tenaciously to the organization."

Some Political Complications.

The rumor appears to have a good foundation that both the names of Sewall and Watson will be removed from the Demo-Populist ticket. Sewall was nominated to balance by an extreme Eastern name the extreme Western one of Bryan. It would mollify Eastern conservative Democrats. Moreover, Sewall was rich and would be able to make a handsome contribution to the campaign fund. Then he was a solid business man, ship builder, banker, railway President, and would in this respect make up for the utter lack of business qualifications on the part of Bryan.

But these very qualifications on the part of Sewall, were offensive to the Populists. They did not want an enterprising, successful business man on their ticket. They would replace Sewall's name with that of Watson, a southern politician and lawyer who in the place of any solid qualifications, had the genuine southern yell. This man has assailed Sewall and threatened Bryan.

Now the Fusionists are trying to find a compromise. Just before the election, and in the heat of the campaign, the question is seriously discussed whether it is not best to sever these two tails of a ticket, and substitute a name which will be more acceptable to the two wings of the party. Sewall is too respectable and Watson is not respectable enough. One holds his tongue and attends to his business, and the other howls incessantly and threatens the disruption of the party.

Judge Clark of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, is one of the favorite names now mentioned. He is a free silver coinage man who some months ago, made a tour through Mexico and wrote a number of descriptive papers on the industrial condition of that country, which were published in the Arena. Clark maintained that the silver basis of Mexico would be a good thing for the United States. The treatment of the question was superficial, but well calculated to tickle the fancy of those who are now mentioning his name with so much favor for a place on the Fusion ticket in the place of Sewall and Watson.

Crucial Days for the Sultan.

There are now assembling in the waters near Constantinople, one of the largest war fleets that was ever brought together in that vicinity. These, at the last accounts, were to be stationed at points where a landing could be made with the greatest facility for the purpose of suppressing another riot in Constantinople, or what is probably the ultimate fact, to stop any further massacres by an armed European force. If this step is once taken, it would follow immediately thereafter that the Sultan would be deposed. That event may occur without the interposition of such a force.

In a crisis such as is now threatened, England would probably lead off. But a landing of forces from the ships of that country, would be followed at once by similar landings made by French, German and American ships. Russia would also not be a quiet spectator of such an event.

Representations have already gone to England that the lives of her subjects are in danger. That power in these last days does not make any movement of an aggressive character, until there is a strong public opinion created in favor of it. The formation of such an opinion is now going on rapidly in England. Gladstone is active once more in that behalf. Great events affecting the Ottoman dynasty, seem to be rapidly maturing. The dethronement of the Sultan is one of the probable events very near at hand. If brought about by force, the next step might involve the very existence of Turkey in Europe.

Home Talks of McKinley.

When McKinley talks to farmers, as he did yesterday to a delegation fifteen hundred strong who went to Canton—he has something to say worth hearing. He does not tickle their ears with imaginary theories but comes right down to practical talk. They want to know what is best for them and the country; and he tells them without any circumlocution.

They want a protective tariff sufficient to meet all the expenses of the government, and which will at the same time make an end of all debts growing out of treasury deficiencies. They want that kind of reciprocity that seeks out the markets of the world for surplus agricultural and manufacturing products. They want the enlargement of the home market by the opening of every manufactory in the land. They want sound money, which can never be secured by free and unlimited coinage of silver, nor by the issuance of irredeemable paper money. They want an American policy which turns the capital and labor of this country to the very best account. What is good for the farmers of Ohio is good for the whole country.

BOX-PLEATED FRONTS.

They Are on All the Fall Coats.

The fall coat is here. It's a small coat, very unobtrusive. It has many of the peculiarities of the English box coat, but they're modified and do not clash with our ideas of beauty. On the contrary, the coat is very fetching.

It is tight fitting in the back, loose in front, untrimmed, dark blue or tan in color, and without buttons, so far as the eye can tell.

With blue serge suits is a sort of bolero, that is reasonably tight fitting in the back and ends just above the waist-line. From each shoulder a box pleat starts and falls stiffly down the front, which is edged with a row of white and jet passementerie.

The garment is sleeveless. By making it without sleeves, the effect of a combination costume is secured. In the gown mentioned the waist was of white silk. Loops of blue serge were fastened around the arms, and lined with white silk fell gracefully over the sleeves.

Marchioness Li.

Marchioness Li wife of Li Hung Chang, according to a Paris exchange, is a very handsome and exceedingly learned lady. Althoug beyond two scores and ten, she is described as looking less than thirty. In her magnificent home, on the bunks of the Pei Ho, she lives in royal splendor surrounded by a large court, by song birds, peacocks, aquaria, pottery, gems and botanical collections. About one thousand attendants are at her disposal. In her wardrobe are guarded two thousand coats, twelve hundred pairs of trouserettes and five hundred fur robes. Her aristocratic feet do not allow her to walk more than a few yard at a time, and so she is carried through the rooms of her palace and along the picturesque paths of its grand park. Twice a day she takes a bath in oil of orange and acacia blossoms, which is followed by an airing in the coolie sedan. Her hair is dressed in fifty different fashions of the coiffeur's art, and her generous allowance enables her to excel not only in lavish expenditures for her personal outfit, but also for charity and general humanitarian objects.—London Sketch.

Resolutions of Regret for Hugh Wilson and J. H. O'Brien.

No Business Transacted at the Meeting of the Exchange.

The Directors of the Merchants' Exchange met in the Exchange rooms in the Central Bank Building last night, President W. V. Witcher presiding.

Directors Fish, Tum Suden, Sohst, Cushing, Wixson, Sinclair, Britton, Fanwell, Boyer, Hunt, Reed, Meese and Coward answered to the roll call.

After the reading of the minutes by Secretary Webb N. Pearce, the Directory adjourned without transacting further business out of respect to the memory of the late John H. O'Brien and Hugh Wilson, both of whom were honored members of the Exchange.

Pictures of both Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Wilson will be draped in mourning and hung in the rooms of the Exchange.

Resolutions of mourning with respect to the deceased members were then adopted. Copies of the same were ordered to be sent to the families of the deceased as also to the press. The following were introduced regarding Hugh Wilson:

"All things are with God.

"Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has, through His divine understanding, removed from our numbers our fellow merchant, Hugh Wilson; and

"Whereas, his untimely end has taken from us a young man of great promise, a young man possessed of all the honesty and justice of an earnest, upright business man and citizen, a faithful son and brother; therefor, be it

"Resolved, That we, his fellow workers in the Marchants' Exchange, mourn with his relatives and friends his untimely taking off; and be it further

"Resolved, That out of respect to our late member we adjourn this meeting without further transaction of business.

The following resolutions regarding the death of Mr. O'Brien were then adopted:

"Whereas, Almighty God has seen fit, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst our friend and fellow tradesman, the late John H. O'Brien; and

"Whereas, The business community has sustained in his loss the earnest work of a good merchant, an upright and loyal citizen, a faithful friend, a good husband and father; therefor be it

AMONG THE POLITICIANS

A Rousing Republican Rally in the Fourth Ward.

M. C. CHAPMAN'S ADDRESS.

Campaign Meetings Increase as Election Draws Near.

FUSIONISTS ARE IN TROUBLE.

Protection Principles Sure to Win in This County.

The Fourth Ward McKinley Republican Club held its regular meeting last night at People's Hall, on Sixth street, near Market. The hall had been tastily decorated with flags, bunting and Japanese lanterns.

The club was called to order by the President, Dr. Fisher, at 8 o'clock, and the regular order of business was taken up. This was soon dispatched, and then the President introduced M. C. Chapman, ex-Mayor of Oakland, whose appearance on the platform was greeted with a storm of applause. Mr. Chapman addressed the assembled Republicans as follows:

"Fellow citizens and gentlemen of the Fourth Ward McKinley Club: It seems almost superfluous to talk to this audience. You all seem to be McKinley men, yet I hope there are some Democrats here tonight. About three years ago we had prosperous times in the United States; there was not a city, town or hamlet, from Maine to California, that was not happy and prosperous. The people of the United States have had a high protective tariff destroyed three times by the Democratic party, and the after effect was most disastrous to American industry and American labor. The free coinage of silver is one of the greatest disasters that could befall this country. All the gold would be cornered.

"The Demo-Pops say there is not enough money in the country. We have more money now than we ever had; there is no scarcity of money. What we want to do is to coin more labor. The banks are full of money. The Democratic party never was a friend to the American workingman, only once, when it was in favor of protection. That was when they voted against the immigration of Chinese labor, for he who voted against cheap labor voted for protection. A short time ago the Democratic party claimed the Republican party was a corpse, but I think that when they read the telegrams from Maine last night they thought we had been resurrected.

"When I say this, I speak for myself alone. I am opposed to the re-election of a United States Senator who says a free trader should go to Congress. Perkins is a good sort of fellow, but he has not the courage of his convictions. What right has he to discredit the nominee of the Republican party? Perkins is a nerveless and timid man, and contrasts strangely with Morino, one of the Marshals of Napoleon; he was also a timid man, but had the courage of his convictions. If George C. Perkins had a little of that man's courage, he should be re-elected. I have no personal animosity against Senator Perkins, but every Republican should be loyal to the party and not support a man who in this district is against the funding bill, but up in Grove L. Johnson's district is in favor of it. Now I have only a word more. Go out like the Methodists and do missionary work among the Democrats and win them over to the side of protection and reciprocity under the leadership of our foremost statesman, William McKinley." (Applause.)

After Mr. Chapman spoke, Senator Eli Denison addressed the audience. He said he backed up Mr. Chapman's exposition of Senator Perkins' position, and would think it over deeply before he helped to make Perkins a Senator next winter.

Chas. E. Snook, W. W. Britton, Mr. Gottshall and Mr. Ingler of the Sixth Ward addressed the club, after which it adjourned to meet next Tuesday night at the same place.

DON'T WANT HONORS.

R. M. Fitzgerald Refuses to Be the Chairman of the County Committee.

Ever since M. J. Laymance, Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, announced that he would not allow himself to be renamed for the position he holds, speculation has been rife as to whom the honor would fall.

Rumor is responsible for the idea that the peace between the Laymance-Fitzgerald factions meant that R. M. Fitzgerald would seek the place, but such an idea is erroneous.

In speaking of the matter today, Mr. Fitzgerald said: "I most certainly am not a candidate for the position, and I would not accept it if tendered to me. I am devoting altogether too much time to politics now for my own good, and I must have an opportunity to attend to business."

SILVER'S CHAMPIONS.

A Big Rally Is to Be Held by the Party Tonight.

There will be a big Silver meeting at Metropolitan Hall, San Francisco, tonight, at which Frank G. Newlands and M. F. Taylor will speak.

Music and campaign songs by a glee club will liven up the proceedings.

The affair is under the direction of the California Silver Campaign Committee.

Spoke to Veterans.

There was a large meeting of the Veteran Republican League of Alameda in Linderman's Opera House last evening, at which Judge J. J. Allen, Judge Langan of Livermore and Judge A. B. Hunt of Alameda delivered telling addresses.

Religion and Politics.

A debate on the financial question between John P. Irish and Judge E. M. Gibson has been arranged by the Men's Club of the First Free Baptist Church, Twenty-first street, between San Pablo avenue and Brush street. The subject is "For Free and Unlimited Coinage of Silver," and the date is next Friday evening.

The Fusion Fizzle.

The Demo-Populist Fusion Committee made another fizzle last night, when it was to have met, but failed to do so, owing to the absence of a quorum.

The lack of interest being taken in the movement is a result of an attempt to definitely apportion officers between the two parties, prior to the conventions. The Populists did not like the idea, and have kept away from the conferences since.

Another effort at a meeting will be made tonight.

A Republican Rally.

Saturday evening, September 26th, will be the date of the next Republican demonstration in Alameda County. As on some former occasions, the Tabernacle will be the scene, and several speakers of ability will be heard.

Prior to the meeting, a street parade will take place, in which the Alliance Club and the Young Men's Republican League will participate.

Good Talkers.

Judge J. A. Waymire of Alameda and Colonel J. P. Jackson addressed the meeting of the San Francisco National Republican League last evening.

Perkins Will Speak.

The West End Republicans of San Francisco will hold a meeting at the Chutes tomorrow night, which will be addressed by Senator Perkins and Congressman Loud.

Political Equality.

The Political Equality Club will hold a parlor meeting at the residence of Mrs. I. N. Chapman, 2225 Pacific avenue, Alameda, Tuesday evening, September 22d.

Another meeting will be held Friday evening.

A Southern Convention.

The Riverside County Republican Convention, which met yesterday and refused to instruct its Assembly candidates to vote for Perkins for United States Senator. Resolutions were passed endorsing the Senator's work at Washington.

William Collier, Esq., a warm friend of Perkins, offered a minority report to the effect that the convention instruct its nominee for the Assembly to vote for Perkins to succeed himself. The reading of the report was the signal for the beginning of a heated debate. John G. North, George Frost and other leaders of the party strenuously opposed the adoption of the minority report, and it was defeated by a big majority. This means that the Assemblyman from the Seventy-seventh District will go to Sacramento unpledged, as it is conceded that the Republican candidate will have a walk-over.

George H. Dole was nominated for Assembly.

Given a Chance.

Edward Mack, one of the boys arrested for stealing copper bond wire from the Alameda and Oakland Electric Railway, was allowed by Judge Frick this morning to go free on his own recognizance. It was shown that he is only 13 years of age and that his sister had promised to send him to school in the country and keep him there two years. District Attorney Snook assented to the proposition.

PRIMARY POLLING.

Democrats Are Holding Their Election Throughout the County.

CLUB ROLLS BEING USED.

Everything Is Going Smoothly and no Friction Is Expected.

VOTING HERE TONIGHT.

The Convention Is to Be Held at the Tabernacle Saturday.

The Democrats of the county are in the throes of a primary election today, which will continue until a few hours of midnight. Inside the city the polls will not open until 7 o'clock tonight, and then only at the various club headquarters, though in the outside townships, particularly Eden, Murray and Washington, open primaries are in progress, the voting commencing shortly after noon.

Each precinct represents a newly formed club, and those Democrats who did not put their names on the roll prior to 8 o'clock last night will not be allowed to participate in the selection of delegates to the County Convention.

As soon as the call was issued by the County Central Committee, each committeeman was authorized to organize a club in his precinct. This was done largely, and in the majority of the wards delegates will be selected by precincts, though in some cases several of the clubs have been combined to elect a blanket ticket for the ward.

The apportionment is one delegate for each fifty votes or majority thereof cast for Governor Budd in the last election, while in some precincts where there are not the requisite number of votes one delegate is allowed anyway.

The election is entirely under the direction of the County Committeemen, and as there are no contests matters are running with surprising smoothness.

The Laymance-English-Fitzgerald factions are now a unit again. This was brought about through a conference held yesterday between John English and Bob Fitzgerald, when each named the other as delegates to the convention. It was a love feast all around, and the reunion of Democratic forces is a cause for much satisfaction by many who have been mixed in the factional differences existing during the past six months.

In the First Ward there are to be nine delegates elected, one to each precinct except the Third, which gets two. Here the committeemen are F. W. Leonhardt, T. L. Cortage, B. F. Connolly, J. J. Driscoll, M. Farrell, E. J. Murphy and J. C. Bullock.

Ten delegates are allotted to the Second Ward, two each going to the First, Second and Sixth Precincts. The committeemen in charge are P. J. Brophy, W. K. McKee, E. J. Erickson, W. H. Maguire, W. Smythe, C. L. Dam, J. D. Scanlon.

The Third Ward's share is nine delegates, divided evenly in all the precincts except the First and Seventh, which get two. Wm. Mullins, F. J. Moffitt, L. Kehoe, W. B. White, J. F. Connors, J. J. McDonald and P. O'Kane are the committeemen here.

The Seventh is the only precinct in the Fourth Ward which does not get two delegates, the total number being thirteen. The committeemen are C. W. Logan, J. F. Kelly, M. J. Kelly, P. Gallagher, T. J. Hopkins, Patrick Haley and J. Harrington.

In the Fifth Ward, each of the seven precincts is allowed one representative, and here the primaries will be conducted by committeemen J. B. Letter, R. B. Snell, H. C. McPike, J. E. Finnegan, R. M. Fitzgerald, J. M. English and C. L. Smith.

Eleven delegates go to the Sixth Ward, divided so that the First, Second and Seventh Precincts get only one, while the others have two. The committeemen are Andrew McGary, Thos. White, C. D. O'Gara, J. E. Dalton, F. E. Crocker and Martin Ryan.

Only the Sixth and Seventh Precincts in the Seventh Ward get two delegates, the rest by the apportionment being given one each. M. J. Laymance, Jas. Mulgrew, A. M. Belt, D. La Fortune, Henry Moffitt, D. R. P. Dubernet and J. Samuels are the committeemen.

Alameda is allowed fifteen delegates, two in each precinct except the First, Third and Fourth.

Thirteen representatives for the share of Berkeley, where in the Second, Sixth and Seventh one each will be chosen; in the First, Fourth and Fifth two each, and in the Third Precinct four.

In Oakland Township the apportionment gives Ocean View one, Bay three, Peralta, Claremont, Piedmont and Temescal No. 1 one each, and Temescal No. 2 two.

In Eden Township, San Lorenzo is given three; San Leandro No. 1, No. 2 and Haywards No. 2, two each; Castro Valley, Palmares, Mt. Eden No. 1, No. 2, and Haywards No. 2, one each.

Murray Township is allotted twelve delegates all told, divided as follows: Murray, Livermore No. 3 and Pleasanton No. 1, two delegates apiece; Altamont, Dublin, Murray No. 1, Livermore No. 1, Pleasanton No. 2 and Sunol, one each.

Washington Township has only six delegates to elect, one from each of the following towns: Alvarado, Centerville, Niles, Mission, Newark and Washington.

The total number to be named in the county is 143.

The test being used is: "Are you a Democrat and will you support the nominees of the National Democratic ticket and Congressmen and nominees to be named at the Democratic County Convention and to be held in Oakland, Alameda County, on September 19th, 1896?"

The tickets are not all fully prepared, and will not be until tonight, when the clubs will nominate and elect at the same time.

The returns will be taken directly to the County Committee, and will probably be canvassed Friday, the day before the County Convention, which meets in the Tabernacle.

The voting for the first five precincts in the Seventh Ward will take place at 305 East Twelfth street tonight.

The Sixth Precinct Club will meet at Thirteenth avenue and the Seventh Precinct organization at Twenty-third avenue.

The Fusion Committee is working on a new tack at present. If it cannot agree upon selections throughout, the resolutions declaring for fusion will be presented, leaving blank the districts to be apportioned to each party.

When the conventions pass upon the document, a joint committee is to be appointed to report back to the convention the plan of apportioning the offices.

Kennedy Protests.

Editor Tribune—Sir: Permit me to ask what political clubs are for? I had supposed they were to secure the co-operation of as large a number of the members of a party as possible—to aggregate their wisdom, the better to promote harmony and secure success—but it is possible I am mistaken, for I am informed that the friends of one candidate have been meeting from time to time, and have finally concluded that they will ignore the clubs of their party and allow their candidate to name the entire ward delegation, regardless of the wishes of other candidates or of the rank and file of the party, who are expected to do the voting.

The success of this candidate is placed above that of McKinley and Hobart. The man is made greater than his party. It is not good politics; and I beg to call the attention of Major McLaughlin to the matter, and refer him to Messrs. Farnum, Moller et al., and the pure politicians who always want everything open and aboveboard. I protest against the practice, while favoring the candidate.

Respectfully,
L. W. KENNEDY.

The Law to Decide.

A suit to recover $1,100 has been commenced by Fannie Beach against Julius A. Remmel. Plaintiff alleges that on the 19th day of October, 1890, defendant agreed to convey to her a piece of land on the corner of Railroad avenue and St. Charles street, Alameda, for the consideration of $3,100, of which $1,100 was to be paid down and the balance to be paid in monthly installments of $20; that plaintiff did pay the sum of $1,100, but that on September 2, 1894, Remmel served upon the plaintiff a notice to quit and deliver up the possession of the premises, and that the $1,100 has never been refunded.

THE LAURADA'S TRIP

NEW YORK, Sept 16—The Herald this morning publishes the following special correspondence from Kingston, Jamaica, September 6

All circumstances point to the fact that on her last voyage the steamer Laurada included among her crew a Spanish agent and spy So far as is known there his identity has not been discovered

That the Laurada carried a filibustering expedition to Cuba on this trip seems to be beyond all doubt, although there will probably be great difficulty in proving the fact, for the Spanish spy, who, it is now well known, was on board, will hardly care to reveal himself in the witness box

If the party is known no action will be taken against him and he will not be disposed to carry out to the end the part he has been playing as a hired spy.

The explanation is simply that this man attempted to wreck the vessel or should he appear to swear to the information he possesses regarding the filibustering part of the voyage, he will have to face a charge on this count per contra.

If his identity has really been ascertained no legal action will be taken against him as that might beg the question as to his possible testimony about the landing of the biggest filibustering expedition of modern times

The facts in connection with the stranding of the steamship at Port Antonio, so far as the Herald's correspondent is able to ascertain are as follows:

"On the arrival of the Laurada at Port Antonio some person unknown gave information to the customs authorities that she had been engaged in a filibustering expedition and that there was a large quantity of rifles still on board, which had not been landed, but which would be put ashore on the return voyage.

"The ship was searched before she proceeded to the outports to take up her cargo of fruit, but the arms were not to be found.

"The informant thereupon secretly promised one of the customs officers that on the vessel's return from the outports he would find means of discovering the secrets in which he was convinced Captain Murphy had concealed the arms, since they had not left the vessel.

"On the night of the first instant, as the Laurada was entering Port Antonio and the Lama was going out, the two vessels passing one another in the deep, but intricate channel, the Laurada had to veer to make way for the outward-bound ship.

"At the critical moment and with a strong current running, the steering gear of the Laurada gave way.

"At that moment the probable effect of the breakdown would have been to throw the Laurada across the Lama's bows and bring about a collision that would have sent the former to the bottom.

"As it happened the current was swifter than the Lama and the Laurada escaped the latter's prow and was swept on the reef.

"By a singular piece of good luck she struck the one spot on the entire length of the reef where she could have struck without having her bottom knocked out.

"Of course to all outward seeming the whole thing had the appearance of an accident. But it was an accident that bids fair to end the days of the Laurada

"She was placed between collision and being smashed on the coral reef, but escaped both and gently lay her nose into a little bed of soft sand

"She had to be lightened to get her off and this fact indicates the agency of some deliberate intent, for through it the unkown informer was enabled to keep his word, a quantity of rifles having been found on the vessel this time

"The result was that Captain Murphy was promptly called up before the resident magistrate and, although the Laurada was so slightly damaged by her contact with the reef that she was able to proceed at once on her voyage, Captain Murphy had to provide recognizance before he could leave the island He made a cash deposit of £300 to appear on the 29th instant to answer the charge of conveying contraband of war, and was allowed to sail."

DANGERS OF DIPHTHERIA.

The Disease Allowed to Run Unchecked in a Country District.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 16—The secretary of the Board of Health reports an awful condition of things in a district four miles from West Baden and French Lick Springs, growing out of neglect in treatment of malignant diphtheria.

Altogether there have been seventy-five cases and twenty deaths

No attempt has been made at quarantining the infected houses and attending physicians were going from house to house without changing clothing

The secretary has forwarded supplies of anti-toxin and disinfectants and has quarantined West Baden and French Lick Springs against the infected districts.

Throughout the district the people seemed unaware of the dangerous character of the epidemic and whether or not it can be confined to present limits is problematical.

A CONFIRMED CRIMINAL.

Kearney's Dynamite Schemes Have Been Heard of Before.

He Once Had a Plan to Blow Up the Atlantic Liner "Queen."

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—According to a local paper, the arrest of Tynan and Kearney, the dynamite conspirators, is a verification of the statements made years ago by Captain Thomas Phelan of this city, that the two noted prisoners were members of an Irish dynamite propaganda which had headquarters in this country.

Phelan was the first man, it is said, to mention the name of Kearney as an active dynamite fulminator and as is known he nearly paid with his life for giving out this information and the charge that O'Donovan Rossa was a traitor.

Captain Phelan, who is a broad swordsman of note, was at the time a city official in Kansas City. He went to New York at the time of the Fenian excitement and finally to Europe, in search of information relative to the movement of the men connected with the plots then existing He became acquainted with Kearney, and to him Kearney told of his intention to place an infernal machine on the Atlantic steamer Queen, set to explode two hours after the steamer should reach Liverpool.

Phelan confided the information to the "Queen's" officials and later told of the occurrence to a New York paper and implicated Rossa

This interview, the giving away of Kearney's name and the implied charge of traitor against Rossa was what caused Phelan's attempted assassination in New York city later.

Celebration of the Breaking Away From Spanish Rule.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

NEW YORK, Sept. 16—A dispatch to the Herald from Panama says.

Central American residents in the Isthmus celebrated the 75th anniversary of independence from Spanish rule yesterday

The delegates appointed by San Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua met at Amapala to ratify the treaty of Amapala made some months ago by President Gutierrez, Bonilla and Zelaya at that port The object of the treaty is a union of the three Republics into one, to be called Republica Mayor de Central America. Costa Rica and Guatemala refused to enter the union.

The Herald's correspondent in Managua telegraphs that the Constitutional Assembly has nominated President Zelaya as a candidate for the Presidential term from 1896 to 1902

The Herald's correspondent in Guayaquil says that Alfaro has promulgated a decree convoking a convention to meet October 9th.

Society Will Turn Out to Enjoy Madame Sans Gene

The sale of seats for "Madame Sans Gene" at the Macdonough is of a nature to make it more than certain that the company will play to big houses during its engagement here. The nights set apart for it are Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next and society evidently intends to turn out in full force.

Some of the costumes worn are very elaborate. In the great second act and court scene Miss Kidder has chosen cream white lustless satin, which is truly Napoleonic in richness and splendor, and it is safe to say no more magnificent stage gown has ever been seen in this country. It is in Empire style with a train fully three yards long covered with almost hand embroidery in gold, silver, pearls and iridescent spangles. The pattern is in an oak pleaf which forms a clinging vine around the edge of the low cut bodice headed by gold and silver cord. The high Directoire collar is of white net heavily studded in gold and immense pearls, and in this the same leaf like pattern prevails. Four rows of big pearls fastened by diamond clasps is what the Duchess wears for a necklace, and a small tiara of diamonds crown her red gold hair.

The court mantle, which forms part of this costume, during the court reception is of richest scarlet velvet of a most peculiar shade. One entire afternoon was spent by Miss Kidder, her friends and milliners in choosing the exact and historical shade of red, and by studying a description of one of Empress Josephine's gowns it was finally secured. The mantle reaches to the edge of the three-yard train, and has a border of hand embroidery in gold twelve inches wide.

THE OAKLAND.

Friday evening Court United States Order of Foresters will hold a benefit at the Oakland Theater. Tickets can be procured from members of the order and exchanged at the box office for reserved seats. "The Iron King" has proven a strong melo-dramatic attraction and good houses are in order. Through the illness of Carl Birch, who will again be seen next week in the role of heavies, Tillotson Boyce endeavors to sustain the character of Melvin Thornton. With this exception the remainder of the company are deserving of the highest tribute for the clever manner in which they sustain their parts. Next week "The Commodore," a strong marine melo-drama, is underlined.

DEATH WAS PREFERABLE.

The Burden of Poverty Was Too Great for Fred Mauerhan.

Fred Mauerhan, a sixteen-year-old boy chose death to poverty. Last night he placed a 38 caliber revolver to his head and sent a bullet into his brain.

He was employed as a driver at Yeager & Baery's dairy and supported his mother and three younger children, his father being a cripple and unable to work. The family lived near the dairy at Diamond, and the death of the lad leaves them destitute.

The boy chose the front room in his employers' house for his death, and carefully dressed himself in his best clothes before firing the fatal shot.

He had many times been heard to say that death was preferable to a life of poverty, and undoubtedly despondency caused his act.

The body is now at the morgue where Justice of the Peace Lawrence, acting for Coroner Baldwin will hold an inquest at 8 o'clock this evening.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

John J. Valentine, President of Wells, Fargo & Co., entered the employ of that concern in Virginia City, Nev., about thirty-four years ago, as a booking clerk for their stage lines; and his promotion to his present position over the heads of several older expressmen than himself is purely the result of merit and business training. Mr. Valentine made a speech before the Ebell Society of Oakland on Thursday, in which he declared that "Governments cannot create values," for which he has centuries of history to sustain his position.—Los Angeles Times.

Oakland's Board of Trade has determined to enter upon a crusade of beautifying that city. The members have shown level headedness by determining to build boulevards and improve and beautify parks.—Stockton Mail.

LOOKED LIKE LYNCHING.

Infuriated Chicago Workmen Attack an Unfortunate Teamster.

His Horse Had Knocked Down a Number of Their Comrades.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—An infuriated mob of laborers battled with the police in South Chicago at 6 o'clock last evening for the possession of a wagon driver whom they threatened with lynching because his runaway horse knocked down several of the crowd.

After a fierce struggle, in which clubs and stones were freely use, the driver, Peter Zisliski, was rescued from his assailants. In addition to the half dozen men trampled beneath the hoofs of the frantic horse, a number of the crowd was severely beaten by the police.

A passing engine frightened the horses which had been standing in front of a house and he dashed down the street toward a crowd of workingmen who were leaving the Steel Company's works.

Zisliksy managed to overtake the runaway and clamber into the wagon but could not control the horse, which swept into the crowd, scattering it right and left.

A dozen went down before the frenzied animal, many of those who escaped its hoofs being struck by the wagon.

In an instant Zisliksy was surrounded by a crowd. In vain he explained his helplessness, but his captors seized him, threw him to the ground and were crying for a rope when the police, having been alarmed, appeared on the scene and Zisliksy was rescued after a fierce fight.

OLD AND PROSPEROUS.

The West Oakland Loan Association in Good Shape.

The shareholders of the West Oakland Mutual Loan Association, now the oldest institution of the kind in California, held their twenty-first annual meeting Monday evening, at their hall, corner of Seventh and Willow streets, West Oakland.

Secretary A. Sbarboro read his twenty-first annual report, which shows that the association has had a remarkably prosperous career. In twenty-one years it has assisted 517 members to acquire homes for their families in San Francisco and Alameda Counties, and in that long period of time it has never foreclosed a single mortgage. It has only acquired lately from a delinquent stockholder a small house and lot on Campbell street, which cost the association $850, which the officers expect to sell without sustaining any loss whatever. The amount loaned to members since the organization of the institution was $378,048.39. Four hundred and twenty-four stockholders have already repaid their loans, aggregating $447,186.39; there still remaining ninety-three borrowers, who owe the association $130,862, which they are rapidly paying off by monthly instalments.

The association has also paid out to shareholders who have found use for their money in profitable investments the sum of $697,273.52, including $186,993.77 earnings, showing the interest received by the withdrawal members to have been between 8 and 12 per cent per annum in accordance with the age of the shares so surrendered.

The institution continues, even in these hard times, when many banks have stopped making loans, to help its members to buy or build homes, the interest being still kept at 6 per cent per annum and the premium 50 cents per share, which makes the monthly payments to the borrower $12.50 for every $1,000 net cash received by the same.

These small monthly installments enable families of thrift and frugality to acquire their own homes far about the same amount that they should have to pay for like accommodations in rented houses.

The stockholders were much pleased at the report presented, and by unanimous vote re-elected the following officers and directors:

President, A. Merle; Vice President, C. H. Spaulding; Treasurer, Wm. Wagner; Secretary, A. Sbarboro; Attorney for Alameda County, Land Title Co. of Oakland; Attorney for San Francisco, D. Friedenrich, and in addition to the first three named gentlemen, C. S. Martin, Aug. Fick, Jos. Schnelly, G. D. Welch, C. A. Malm and G. B. Cevasco as Directors.

Secretary A. Sbarboro gave notice that on the 1st of October he would remove his office in San Francisco to the bank building, No. 518 Montgomery street, formerly occupied by Sather & Co.'s Bank.

The books were then opened for subscription to 1,000 shares of stock of the twentieth series, and many shares have already been taken.

NEEDS RENOVATING.

The Supervisors Are Preparing to Fix Up the Court House.

Supervisor Church said today that it is the intention of the Board of Supervisors to give the Court House an overhauling in the interior, and to make some needed changes of a sanitary character in the County Jail.

The work in the Court House will, in the main, consist of renovation, of which it is generally admitted the place stands in need. The matting in the halls is old, and in many places sodden with usage. The walls are grimy, and in some of the chambers the need of better ventilation is apparent. It has been suggested that, with respect to the court-rooms of Judge Ellsworth and Judge Greene, a better system of governing the lighting facilities should be devised. Ordinarily, light is a desideratum of a court-room, but too much of it is an unmixed evil. That the rooms in question have too much light is apparent, because, when unrestricted, the rays pour in through the stained windows on two sides with almost dazzling intensity.

The Keeler Reading.

Mr. Chas. A. Keeler, one of the brightest and most promising of our younger California writers, will read at the Unitarian Church, corner of Fourteenth and Castro streets, next Friday evening, his poem, "The Promise of the Ages." Mr. Keeler is the author of a number of literary productions, which have met with much recognition. He is about to depart for the East on a brief journey connected with the publication of his writings. The Starr King Fraternity has this recital in charge. There will be musical illustration.

SPORTING NEWS

Football Is the All-Absorbing Topic Just at Present.

MAKE-UP OF THE TEAMS.

The U. C. Will Have a Strong Club to Combat for Honors.

READY FOR DUCK-SHOOTING.

Sportsmen Will Soon Seek Preserves in the Country.

The football enthusiasts are assuming their war paint and have prepared a fine schedule of games for the winter.

The State shoot at inanimate targets takes place in San Jose on October 3d and 4th.

The blue-rock shooting season has practically closed and now the sportsmen are looking toward the preserves for duck hunting.

The big bicycle road race is billed for Sunday, October 11th. Many local riders are now in training.

Yachtsmen are talking of another race between the crack flyers, Catherine and Fawn.

A meeting of the Los Banos Gun Club will be held Friday evening.

THE UMPIRE.

Football has come to the front in good style during the past week. All the college athletes are interested in the sport and the club men are not far behind, though they have not the same opportunity to practice as the others have. Then, too, many of the players are working until dark on week days, leaving only Sunday in which to meet on the gridiron. Nevertheless some good players are on the club rolls and a little later in the season more time will be devoted to practical work.

Baseball has not enjoyed its former favor and it is not probable that it will again be any decided attraction this season, though the league games still go on.

Tennis is picking up somewhat and the yachtsmen are improving most opportunities of the season for racing and aquatic events.

The blue-rock shooting has practically ceased, though there will be one or two final events yet.

The winter will see horse racing, duck shooting, football and some tennis, and will pretty effectually shut out cycling, baseball, target practice, cricket and other outdoor sports which have been almost the sole attractions of the past few months.

* * *

The gun clubs are already beginning to prepare for the coming season on the preserves, which promises to be one of great sport. W. D. Heitmann, president of the Los Banos Club, has issued a notice to members to meet in R. S. Leckie's office at 8 o'clock Friday night to formulate plans for the hunts which are to come.

* * *

Now that Corbett has said that he will fight Fitzsimmons as soon as he gets through with Sharkey, the talkers are circulating all kinds of rumors, the latest being to the effect that a huge fake is being perpetrated upon the American public and that the whole business is merely part of a scheme to gain advertising for the trio, who it is said will ultimately appear together in a big theatrical combine.

This is the talk, but it has been the same old story ever since there was any possibility of a fight. I suppose, if two or three more gladiators shied their casters into the ring, it would be announced that the job had grown to such proportions that a big traveling circus would be the outcome.

It is money that talks, and as it appears there is some of that commodity in sight already, it is reasonable to suppose that a match will be made between the champion and his two understudies.

They are not doing half the chattering that the public is lead to believe they are. It is the class of satellites which thrive on the atmosphere of the ring and are ready to hold the bottle for anyone who will furnish them a drink, that make the noise and give the public food for gossip. The principals themselves are keeping quiet and probably know what they are doing when they put up forfeit money.

Let us have a fight or let's not, but for goodness sake break away on this idle and really foolish talk.

D. H. Kenaga of Port Townsend, Wash., has received the following letter from a friend in Yokohama, relative to the oft-repeated Japanese bicycle rumor:

"I have visited the oldest bicycle factory in Japan, and had an interview with the proprietor. He gave me a printed price list of all the cycles he is now putting out. The retail prices varied from forty-five to one hundred and ten yen. He informed me that his factory is unable to supply the demand in Japan at these rates. At wholesale he could not offer 10 per cent reduction. There is a factory in Tokio which I have not yet heard from, but owing to the large demand for wheels in this country, (a large number being imported from America and Europe), I believe the Japanese are not now exporting, and never have exported cycles to America. The great danger on this side is not from the Japanese alone, but from foreigners who may here establish factories for the purpose of flooding foreign markets. In a few years the country will be all opened to foreign enterprise. The Japs have the will and facilities to compete with foreigners, but they lack in enterprise, originality and organization. In due time these drawbacks may be corrected, but it will not be for years to come."

There are several rules to follow if the rider who wishes to thoroughly enjoy his journeys. The men and boys who are employed in the workshops will find it an excellent plan to follow the advice given in this article. Five o'clock is the right hour for the alarm clock to sound its warning, and no time is to be lost, for no wheelman should start off on a trip, be it ever so short, without some food to act as a stimulant till breakfast time. A bowl of bread and milk serves as an excellent repast, and it will provide nourishment for several hours. A half hour after rising the rider should be able to silently slide his wheel from the woodshed and make for the country side. The green hills are rapidly taking on a brownish tint. The frost is on the ground and a chill is in the air. To prevent cold a thick sweater should be used, but as the sun comes up this may be discarded and strapped to the handle bars.

YACHT TALK.

Another Race May Be Arranged Between the Catherine and Fawn.

There is talk of another yacht race between the Fawn and Catherine, each of which has won a victory over the other.

In the races of the Inter-Club Yachting Association, held on Admission Day, the Catherine captured the Macdonough cup, at the same time beating her rival by six minutes and seventeen seconds on the first leg of the triangle.

Now it is asserted that a professional seaman was employed on the Catherine and the owners of the Fawn have consequently filed a protest with the association. If the charges prove true the Catherine stands a good chance of being disqualified for the rules are strict with regard to amateur racing. At all events the Catherine will receive another challenge and it will probably be accepted.

In the meantime Admiral Von Schmidt of the California Yacht Club, who owns the Whirlwind, has challenged either yacht to a race on the triangular course.

ON THE GRIDIRON.

The St. Mary's College Football Team Scores a Victory.

The second eleven football team of St. Mary's College defeated the Peralta High School team in a spirited game of football Saturday.

In the first half Donovan for St. Mary's scored a touchdown, but failed to kick a goal. The second half resulted in two touchdowns and goals for the college chaps.

Holmes and Flood, the halves for St. Mary's, did fine work, while Foster and Brune, for the High School boys, held up their end well.

The make up of the teams was as follows:

St. Marys.	Positions.	High Schools
Hughes	Center	Coblentz
Haywards	right guard	Phelps
Hallahan	right tackle	F. Magona
Bender	left tackle	Melhert
Cuneo	right end	Penate
Huff	left end	Beamer
Flanagan (cptn)	quarter	J. Magona
Donovan	right half	Brune (cptn)
Flood	left half	Foster
Holmes	fullback	Sharon

Score: 16—0. Goals kicked—Two by Holmes.

Umpire—F. Frick.

THE SHOOTING SEASON.

The Final Match of the Empire Gun Club at Alameda.

The Empire Gun Club held a lively shoot at Alameda Point Sunday, which had been termed the final rally for the season.

The event of the day was the final club shoot at twenty-five birds, as a result of which $150 was distributed among five classes of competitors. The results were as follows:

First class, for $50—Stewart 22, first money; Billington 21, second money; Mendenhall 19, Leeds 18, Debenham 17.

Second class, for $40—Judd 20, King 20, divided first money; Sears 19, Leheke 19, Fischer 19, divided second money.

Third class, for $30—Newton 20, first money; Quinton 19, second money; Andrus 18, Anderson 16, Young 16.

Fourth class, for $20—Kerrison 20, first money; Vandall 18 and Javete 18, second money; Tribby 16, Goodwin 12.

Fifth class, for $10—C. Fischer 20, first money; Grubb 16 (withdrew in favor of Paul); Paul 15, second money; Bisfelt 11, Colt 6. The following extra men scored: Johns 20, Dabrough 11, Olsen 19, Neustadter 8, Palmer 14, Friedlander 13.

This, with a few other matches, wound up the shooting for the season, which lasts from March to September, though during winter the preserves on the Sonoma marsh are the scene of action during duck season.

On the 20th of this month the club will shoot against the Garden City Club in San Jose and on the 4th and 5th of October, will enter the Inanimate Target Association's tournament.

THE STATE SHOOT.

Preparations Well Underway for the Big Affair.

The State tournament of the California Inanimate Target Association which takes place at San Jose on October 3d and 4th, promises to be the most largely attended event of the kind ever held in the State.

It is expected that over 200 men will face the traps and between 40,000 and 50,000 blue rocks will be broken.

The Garden City Cyclers' Gun Club has $400 cash and $500 worth of merchandise already subscribed as prizes, and the California Inanimate Target Association will add $800 cash.

Shooting grounds have been prepared on the Pothemus tract. Five sets of electric pull traps will be provided. The trappers, judges and referees will all be competent men, and nothing will be lacking in the arrangements to make the shoot a success. The entries will be made on the night of October 2d at the Hotel Vendome, which is to be the headquarters of the association during the tournament. On the evening of October 4th a banquet will be tendered the visitors at the Vendome, at which the prizes will be distributed.

SAN RAFAEL RACES.

Oakland Riders Win Several of the Events.

The San Rafael bicycle races Sunday attracted a large crowd to the seaside town, among whom were many Oaklanders.

C. D. Bates, Jr., the speedy Reliance rider, won the mile handicap, with G. A. Wyman of the Acme Club a close second. The prize was a silver cup.

In the five-mile handicap, E. W. Decker a scratch man, won the time prize, in 14 minutes 24 2-5 seconds.

The final race of the day was disastrous for three riders. Noonan of Santa Rosa broke his pedal when within a short distance of the tape, and his wheel struck that of Decker, the Acme man. The two took a hard fall and Henry Noonan, riding hard up in the rear, crashed into the prostrate men. All three were badly bruised up and had to be carried to the club house.

GOALS AND KICKERS.

Many Candidates for Positions on the U. C. Team.

Monday afternoon all the candidates for football honors at the State University met on the campus, where Captain Ransome lined them up and gave them a preliminary trial. Those who donned the blue and gold suits were: Haskell, Bender, Kennedy, Anderson, McNutt, Hopper, Hall, Julian, Hall, Carl, Greisberg, Craig, Spense, Birdsall, Toland, McDermot, Ebright, Powers, Karasburg, Thane, Perly, Peck, Miller, Powers, Graham, Barnes, Riley, Foote, Smythe, Allen, Cornish, Whipple and Stewart.

RULES ARE CHANGED.

A Slight Difference in Football Tactics for This Year.

There are several changes in the football rules of this year which are now consolidated into one set. Momentum plays are practically prevented; mass plays held more in check; the chances for a fair catch of a punted ball made much easier; interference with the fair catch and the ball during an attempted snap-back discouraged by the introduction of a more stringent prohibitory rule; and a quarterback kick, where the ball is sent forward of the line of scrimmage is interpreted as giving the opponents a fair and equal chance at the ball.

There are other minor changes, but they do not affect the play or change in the least the appearance of the game.

"A fair catch," to quote the new rule, "is a catch made direct from a kick by one of the opponents, or from a punt-out by one of the same side, provided the man while making the catch makes a mark with his heel and no other of his side has touched the ball. If he be interfered with by an opponent who is off side, or if he be thrown after catching the ball, unless he has advanced beyond the mark, he shall be given fifteen yards."

This fifteen-yard penalty will, it is thought, effectually prevent interference with attempted fair catches.

The rule regulating momentum and mass plays says in part:

Before the ball is put in play in a scrimmage should any player of the side which has the ball take more than one step in any direction he must come to a full stop before the ball is put in play. Exception—One man of the side having the ball may be in motion toward his own goal without coming to a full stop before the ball is put in play. When the ball is put in play at least five players must be on the line of scrimmage.

Five yards are given for interfering with the ball on the center rush during an attempted snap-back.

A MILITARY SHOOT

Company F Make Good Scores at the Target.

The first day of the annual State shoot of the N. G. C. took place Sunday at Shell Mound Park. The scores made by Company F, Fifth Infantry were as follows:

THE CHAMPIONS COMING.

Carr Neel and Other Tennis Cracks Will Be Here Soon.

Carr B. Neel, the champion tennis player, who has won fresh laurels in the East, will start on his way to California on the 20th to participate in the tennis tournament to be held at San Rafael, commencing Friday, September 25th and continuing for three days.

He will come in company with W. A. Larned and R. D. Wrenn and the California Lawn Tennis Association will bear the expenses.

Carr Neel is an Oakland man, and went East in 1893 with W. H. Taylor Jr. and C. P. Hubbard and was the only one who could stand up against the Eastern men. He secured the championship from S. P. Chase last summer and won two "round robin" tournaments without losing a match.

Oakland Loses Again.

The Oaklands fell down again at Santa Cruz Sunday, when they were defeated by the Electrics, a local club of that place. The score was 2 to 3 and throughout the game it was exciting and replete with good playing on both sides.

After the game the Oaklanders were royally entertained at the Pacific Ocean House.

Oakland Wins at Stockton.

In the bicycle races at Stockton on Admission Day the first heat of the half-mile dash for amateurs was won by Percy Mott, Reliance, Golinda, Acme, second. The second heat brought out Lefevre, Acme, first and in the final, Mott won, with Crafts and Hamlin second and third.

The Big Road Race.

Several of Oakland's crack riders are in training for the big road race which is scheduled to take place on Sunday, October 11th. The Road Racing Association will meet on Saturday evening, October 3d, and complete all the details, though already Chairman Stratton has matters well shaped.

Reliance Shoot.

The final shoots in both the free for all match and the club medal match, of the Reliance Gun Club take place Sunday, September 20th, at the club grounds. Shooting will begin promptly at 10 a. m.

NEIGHBORLY NOTES.

The Freshmen at the University Make a Splendid Showing.

SOME PHYSICAL POINTERS.

The Faculty Starts In Its Crusade Against Rushes.

CO-EDS ARE CALLED ON.

General Gleanings of Interest in the College Town.

BERKELEY, Sept. 16.—The University of California has some unusually large men in the Freshman class. Professor Walter Magee of the Physical Culture Department has completed the measurements of the male students of the class of '00, and is surprised at the extraordinary average shown. He has measured 260 men and says that they are on an average taller and heavier than any of the preceding classes. There are eighteen men in the class over six feet in height. The average weight is 153.6 pounds, and the average height 5 feet 10½ inches.

FRESHMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

The Freshman class of the University held a hotly contested election of class officers yesterday afternoon, which resulted in the election of the following officers: William E. Sauer of Berkeley as President; Robert Collins of San Francisco, First Vice President; Miss Alice Rooney of San Francisco, Second Vice President; Warren Davis of Belmont, Secretary, and W. K. White of San Francisco Treasurer.

During a Freshman class meeting yesterday a notice was received from President Kellogg ordering that back stop rushes be refrained from in the future. This order is probably the forerunner of an edict prohibiting all rushes.

RUSHING CO-EDS CENSURED.

At a meeting of the Associated Women Students yesterday, a set of resolutions was presented by Miss Grace Crabb and Miss Grace Dibble, condemning co-ed participation in rushes. The resolutions called forth a hot discussion. Some of the young women thought they were too severe in their condemnation, and others that they were not severe enough. It was finally decided to table the resolutions, and the meeting adjourned.

A NEW WOMAN DEBATE.

The Citizens' Suffrage Association of Berkeley held a meeting yesterday and discussed at some length the effect the ballot will have on woman's position and whether she may serve on a jury or not. Mesdames Chick, Weed and others who have resided in suffrage States warmly advocated the expediency of having women as jurymen. The various officers read the annual reports. Mrs. Carlisle reported the precinct work as being in excellent condition.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ELECTION.

The annual election of officers of the Alumni Association of the State University will occur next Saturday evening. There are over 1,000 members of the Alumni Association. W. R. Davis of Oakland is prominently mentioned for President to succeed President A. F. Morrison, who positively declines to serve for a third term. The meeting will be held in the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art in San Francisco.

THORNY TICKETS.

Hard Work to Satisfy the Host of Contesting Candidates.

THE THIRD WARD FIGHT.

Judge Allen Announces His Vote There Is for Stratton.

MANY COMBINATIONS MADE.

Every Indication of an Exciting Election Next Saturday.

The tickets for Saturday's primary election are being prepared today and the intention is to have them in the field by the first thing Friday morning. This part of the work is about as thorny as any the candidates have to contend with and is furthermore fraught with much danger, for it is almost impossible to satisfy the host of those who want to get on board.

Every hour is bringing more strength to the Stratton end of the Senatorial fight and he is regarded now as a sure winner. A big card has been played in his behalf during the past few hours and it has resulted in an unqualified victory for him. This is the way it all came about.

In the Third Ward where the political center of gravity seems to be located, the Senatorial-Judicial swings have not hitherto been working very satisfactorily. Hall and Greene put up a combination to carry the ward and then to strengthen themselves took in Roeth for Supervisor and allied themselves with Stratton for Senator. This they thought ensured them victory, but there were clouds gathering that became more ominous as the hours wore on.

Dr. Derrick with his Senatorial aspirations. Judge Allen and his friends, D. C. Brown, W. H. Friend and the other Supervisorial candidates and Judge Adams all began to come together in a combination that suddenly asumed such dimensions that it became threatening. Hall and Greene seeing this, tried to run to cover. They were willing to throw anybody and everybody overboard to save themselves, and knowing they could do nothing with Allen they made a play for Derrick. They first joined in the endeavor to get him into the Assembly fight instead of the Senatorial one and offered him the strength of their ticket if he would accept. But he declined and then in the hopes of capturing his influence in another way they offered to give him three of their delegates, thus throwing down Stratton to that extent. Derrick, however, wanted more—he said he would consider the proposition if he were given seven delegates.

Things were at this juncture last night when Stratton made a stand. He kicked not only over the traces but in a way that threatened destruction to the Hall-Greene Third Ward ticket. He told them what everybody admitted, namely that the ward was for him and he did not propose to have any of his strength traded off to his opponent. He notified them therefor that he would have the full ticket or else he would have his own ticket in the ward. That settled it. The Hall-Greene forces backed down and the whole ticket was assured to Stratton again.

The next move that was expected in the matter was that Derrick would join hands with Allen in the Third, and that they would put up a ticket between them that would include all the candidates left off the Hall-Greene-Roeth-Stratton ticket. For a time many thought that this would go through, but this afternoon Judge Allen took a positive stand by announcing that the ticket he will have in the field there will be for Stratton. This therefor insures a victory for Stratton in the Third, for although Derrick will run a ticket of his own there it is conceded that either the Allen blanket ticket or the Hall-Greene ticket will win. Judge Allen and his friends are sanguine that they can make a big showing under their scheduled arrangement, and the Stratton forces are jubilant, for the ward is now assured to them and victory is in sight. In order to put the final touches to their fight in the ward, the Stratton people have sent out the following notice:

"You are invited to attend a conference of the Third Ward friends of F. S. Stratton, candidate for State Senator, to be held at Syndicate Hall, Thirteenth street, between Clay and Jefferson streets, on Thursday evening, September 17th, 1896, at 7:45 o'clock P. M.

"As this will be the last meeting of Mr. Stratton's supporters before the primary election, you are earnestly requested to be present and assist his interests by your advice.

"(Signed) R. W. Snow, C. W. Kellogg, W. S. Baxter, A. S. Macdonald, A. L. McPherson, W. N. Dimmick, Henry Maloon, P. W. Belingall, W. G. Manuel, W. H. Chickering, Wallace Everson, D. E. Fortin, Marston Campbell, George W. Reed, B. C. Cuvellier, J. A. Britton, Sub-Committee Third Ward.

THE TICKETS.

There will be plenty of tickets for those participating in the primary to select from.

In the First Ward there will be three tickets—the straight Republican, the Pelouse and the independent ticket run by Breiling, candidate for the Assembly.

In the Second Ward there will be a Stratton-Mitchell-Hall ticket and a Derrick ticket.

In the Third Ward there will be a Hall-Greene-Roeth-Stratton ticket, a Derrick ticket, and a blanket ticket for Allen, Brown, Friend and all those who are not on the Hall-Greene ticket.

In the Fourth Ward there will be a straight Republican ticket and possibly a Hall-Hill ticket.

In the Fifth Ward there will be a Stratton ticket and a Derrick ticket. Both tickets will be for Hall and Greene.

In the Sixth Ward there will be a straight Republican ticket and a Langan ticket.

In the Seventh Ward there will be a Derrick-Le Ballister ticket, a Stratton ticket and probably an independent ticket. The Stratton forces will probably take the independent ticket into camp by giving ten votes to the Allen people and if so only the Stratton and Derrick tickets will be in the field.

In Oakland Township there will be a straight Hill-Stratton ticket and a Hill-Hall-Greene ticket.

In Alameda there will be a Hunt ticket and a Greene-Langan ticket.

In Brooklyn there will be a Hall-Greene ticket and possibly a Langan ticket.

In Eden, Murray and Washington Townships the tickets will all be Langan.

HOW THE FIGHT STANDS.

The judicial candidates are making estimates of their strength, and as is customary on such occasions are in many instances claiming the same votes.

This is what the Hall-Greene people say they have at their disposal:

Second Ward	19
Third Ward	14
Fifth Ward	34
Seventh Ward	21
Alameda	17
Brooklyn	11
Oakland Township	23
Total	119

These figures are without any county votes, and Hall and Greene expect to get Washington Township anyhow, if the country vote goes to pieces.

Judge Allen's strength is estimated as follows:

First Ward	14
Third Ward	4
Fourth Ward	17
Sixth Ward	12
Seventh Ward	10
Oakland Township	10
Total	67

This is regarded as positive strength, in addition to which it is expected that Allen will get the 34 from Alameda, if Hunt retires, for Hunt objects to Greene and Hall having carried the war into his domain by putting up a Greene-Langan ticket, for it is well known that it means Greene-Hall in the long run.

Furthermore Judge Allen may get 10 votes in the Second Ward for Mitchell is only tied up to one Judge. So if all the plans go through Allen will have a strength of 117 exclusive of anything from the county.

Hall's strength exclusive of Greene is figured at 92.

Hill only has the Oakland Township vote of 37 in sight at present, but is figuring on some Alameda votes later on.

Langan's claims are as follows:

Eden Township	18
Murray Township	13
Washington Township	16
Total	47

In addition to these he expects to get 12 in the Sixth Ward and 34 in Alameda, making a total of 93.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Suspicious Circumstances at a West Oakland Place.

A Chinese Storekeeper Called on by the Police to Explain.

A fire which broke out at 2.15 o'clock this morning in the rear of a Chinese store at 1469 Seventh street is surrounded with such evidences of arson that Ah Ott, the proprietor, is locked up in the City Prison. He has not been charged yet and probably, through a lack of direct evidence, will not be.

When the department reached the fire a strong odor of coal oil came from the rear room in which the fire started, and after the flames were extinguished an examination showed a liberal supply of it on the floor.

The prisoner attributes this to two causes. The first is that a hanging lamp which he left burning when he went out and which he thinks caused the fire by falling to the floor, spilled some of the oil, and secondly he says that in filling the lamp he accidentally let some of it run over.

There was no one present when the fire started and several of the prisoner's acquaintances assert that he spent the night with one of his countrymen.

The building was a two story wooden structure and belonged to Mrs. Nettie Laymance. It was worth about $2500 and the damage will not exceed $200. The Chinaman's stock received some damage by smoke and water.

A STOCKTON SUICIDE.

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 16.—Shortly before noon today W. F. Bradford, son of S. S. Bradford, the wealthy lumber dealer of Sonora, suicided in the Yosemite Hotel in this city by shooting himself through the head.

He had been on a prolonged debauch and despondency caused by drink was the probable cause that led him to take his life.

The pistol had been recently purchased, and was a 38-calibre affair. He was very well connected, and a member of the firm of which his father is the head.

NEARLY READY TO BUILD.

The New Home for the Acme Club Is Now in Sight.

The Papers Will Be Signed Today and Work Commenced at Once.

This afternoon the final papers are to be signed by the President and Secretary of the Acme Club and Julius Abrahamson, whereby the latter will erect a fine new home for the club on the old Synagogue site.

The building will probably be four stories in height, though Architect Mau has not yet completed his plans. The first, or ground floor, will contain several commodious stores, which will be rented out, leaving the remainder of the entire building to the club.

The basement will be made into a fine swimming tank, the full depth of the building, and will be supplied with heated water when desired.

The gymnasium, reception, card and billiard rooms, with the offices, will be located above the stores.

The club will lease the building for a period of ten years, paying on the average of $200 per month, though for the first few years only $175 per month will be charged.

As soon as the plans are completed work will be commenced, and the building will be in readiness for occupancy within three months.

One Workman Killed and Three Badly Hurt at Chicago.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

Dead—John Nonon, crushed under the pile.

Injured—Patrick Rush, head crushed, badly bruised; John Morrosse, badly bruised; Edwin Baldwin, leg broken, badly bruised.

The accident was caused by the caving in of old brick foundations.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 16.—Owing to the Turkish Government's communication to the Embassies of the powers regarding the rumors of another Armenian outbreak here, the Embassies today deputed the foreign Consuls to authorize the police to enter foreign houses when necessary and to arrest Armenians throwing bombs or shooting therefrom.

FORCIBLE MEASURES.

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—A dispatch to the Frankfort Zeitung from Constantinople says a guard of Turkish troops on duty at Yildiz Palace, composed of four battalions of Albanians, was forcibly disarmed last evening in the presence of a large body of troops and replaced by five Seraskier battalions.

A BID FOR AMERICA.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The St James Gazette this afternoon published a leading editorial article headed: "A New Triple Alliance."

The Gazette points out the menacing tone of the Continental semi-official press on the subject of Turkey, and says: "We are openly threatened with joint hostile European action if we interfere (in Turkey) against the will of the powers.

"But there is one combination which British statesmanship might effect. Two States which have little to gain from Russia could act with us and end the tension.

"The United States and Italy are both understood to be friendly to Russia. Nevertheless, neither is yet too deeply involved to be able to assume an independent attitude under British inspiration.

"Why should not England, the United States and Italy form a new Dreibund? Alone of the nations of the earth, the people of the United States can understand the impulse which would drive Englishmen to war in order to suppress tyranny or rescue the oppressed.

"Plenty of Americans would regard with enthusiasm the spectacle of the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes floating side by side in the Bosphorus to back their joint demand."

The Gazette says Italy is ready to join England if invited, and concludes: "It might be expected the Russian combination would go to peaces at the mere aspect of this genuine League of Peace, and the new Dreibund might lead to a fresh grouping of the powers and the delivery of Europe both from Turkish misrule and the dangerous thralldom of Russia into which it is sinking."

A RATE NOW.

A Formidable Protest by the New York Produce Exchange.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The New York Produce Exchange has filed an important complaint against the railroads comprising the Joint Traffic Association which carry produce to the seaboard, charging them with making rates and regulations and giving terminal privileges for the purpose of diverting traffic which would naturally go to New York to other seaboard cities, including Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, Newport News, and Boston.

The complaint argues for an investigation and the establishment by the Commission of just rates, charges, etc. for inter-state transportation from Chicago, Buffalo, and the West to seaboard cities and markets.

THE COAST WILL WIN.

One of the New Warships Sure to Be Built Here.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Acting Secretary McAdoo has cabled Secretary Herbert in England particulars of the bidding for the construction of three 11,000 ton battleships.

If the Secretary so orders, the awards will be made at once.

The bidders are pressing earnestly for a speedy decision in order that they may take advantage of the present favorable rates for structural material to make contracts for future delivery and the department is disposed to accede to the request, although according to the terms of the advertisement calling for the proposals the awards may be delayed until October 8th.

The bids received have been examined by the Board of Bureau Chiefs and by the law officer of the department and found to be regular in all essential points.

There is little doubt the contracts will go to the Newport News Company, Cramp & Sons, and Union Iron Works, San Francisco.

A MASS MEETING.

Suffragists Will Assemble at the Tabernacle Tomorrow Evening.

Amidst a bower of yellow blossoms, palms and potted plants, against a patriotic background of national flags, the doctrines of the Political Equality Association will be discussed tomorrow evening by the Rev. Anna Shaw and Mrs. Carrie Chapman-Catt at Mills Tabernacle.

Rev. Dr. McLean, honorary president of the Alameda County Association for Political Equality, will preside. The music will be furnished by a cornetist and assemblage singing. This will be the biggest mass meeting the suffragists have held and members of all political organizations are invited to attend.

The suffragists are now hard at work organizing plans for the campaign and the present results are most encouraging. The Lecture Bureau of which Miss Mollie Conners is chairman, receives numerous applications for speakers and the chairman announces that nearly all the political clubs throughout the county are desirous of having women speakers on the suffrage question.

Alameda is making active preparations for a mass meeting. In Haywards, Lorin, Temescal and Golden Gate interest is aroused in the movement and branch societies are being organized. Next Friday evening Rev. Anna Shaw, Miss Mollie Conners, editor of Saturday Night, Mrs. Woodhams, Mrs. L. G. Judd and others will attend a meeting in Haywards.

MOVING THE POSTOFFICE.

Three Bids Are Put in for the Handling of the Mails.

There is a movement on foot to change the location of the Post Office which is at present located at Seventeenth and Broadway. The lease of the present building expires November 30th and there are three bidders for the new lease. Julius Abrahamson has made a proposition for the removal of the office to his new building on Thirteenth and Clay streets. The Albany Hotel management is also offering accommodations at reduced rates and will give three stores including that of J. L. Lyon, the former furniture dealer. This location is centrally located and convenient to business men and there will be plenty of room for the increasing demands of the office. The Albany is the property of William J. Dingee who also owned the Cameron Block on Fourteenth street which was used as a post office for a number of years.

The owners of the present quarters are anxious to retain the post office and will make a bid for it. No decision has been made by the United States Special Post Office Agent in San Francisco and the future locality is uncertain at present. The Postmaster expects to receive word at any time concerning the future location of the office.

"We have nothing to do with the selection of accommodations," said the Assistant Postmaster today, "but we expect a notification of a new lease every day now. Our present quarters are somewhat cramped but are light and airy. As soon as the sealed bids are opened and decided upon the Special Agent will notify us."

THE DYNAMITERS.

Preliminary Preparations Made for the Trial in London.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The British embassy has formally requested the French Government to detain Tynan pending the arrival from England of documents necessary to make a demand for his extradition in regular form.

Tynan, up to last evening, had not applied for protection at the United States embassy and there is considerable doubt whether he has been naturalized as an American citizen.

The report that Alex. Sullivan of Chicago, the Irish leader, has been arrested here is untrue.

BELL OFF TO LONDON.

GLASGOW, Sept. 16.—Edward Bell, the American arrested on a charge of participating with Tynan, Kennedy and Haines in the dynamite conspiracy to blow up the residence of Queen Victoria at Balmoral while the Czar was her guest, was handed over to Scotland Yard detectives this morning and taken to London.

TAKEN TO ST. MARY'S.

The Remains of Henry Summers Are Laid to Rest.

The remains of the late Henry Summers were laid to rest today in St. Mary's Cemetery. The funeral services were held in St. Francis De Sales Church and were very solemn and impressive. Requiem high mass was celebrated at half past nine o'clock. Father McSweeney was celebrant, while Fathers Cull and Butler were deacon and sub-deacon respectively. At the conclusion of the mass, Father McSweeney delivered an impressive and eloquent funeral address.

The remains were escorted to the church by a delegation of Volunteer Fireman. Summers was a member of the first police force ever organized in this city and was a man who had the esteem and friendship of all who knew him. His pall-bearers were selected from his former comrades in the police force and from his friends. From the police force were Captain Wilson, Detective Shorey and Special Officer Ruskin; the remaining three pall-bearers were Frank Ball, P. J. O'Connor and J. P. Deane.

DAVIE MAY FIGHT IT.

Speculation as to the $1.14 City Tax Levy Ordinance.

THE MAYOR WILL NOT TALK.

Bassett, Though, Says That a Dollar Is Enough.

OTHERS ARE NON-COMMITTAL.

The New Schedule Comes Up for Discussion This Evening.

Every indication points to another fight for a dolar tax rate and while arguments in favor of it may not be made at the meeting of the committee of the whole this evening it is lying dormant and will come forth before the ordinance is finally adopted.

Tonight's meeting is held simply to hear the statements of the various departments which have not been invited to attend the secret conferences heretofore held at which $1.14 was decided upon as the rate which would produce a sufficient amount to conduct the affairs of the city.

The Mayor will undoubtedly oppose this rate. He has not openly said so lately but at the expiration of the last fiscal year in recounting the expenses of the city he said that the dollar limit was sufficient. This year he refuses to discuss the matter at all.

But his stand can be pretty clearly figured on by a statement made by Bassett this morning. Bassett was asked what he thought of the $1.14 rate. "It won't stand," he replied, "a dollar limit is just what we shall have."

Bassett is the only one who has so openly declared himself. Kaufman, like the Mayor, is silent and Watkinson has not set his figure. "I don't know whether I shall vote for the $1.14 rate ordinance or not," he says. "I have only been to one of the meetings of the Committee and then only stayed about fifteen minutes. I am a low tax man though and it seems to me we can make all the necessary improvements on less than $1.14."

Heitmann and Brosnahan are both open to conviction. "We want enough to run the city on and make some improvements," they say, "but as yet we are not convinced what amount is necessary. If a dollar won't do it we should vote for more."

All of the other members are in favor of the ordinance as it stands. There are enough to pass it to print anyhow and if a fight against it is made it will not begin until the measure goes to the Mayor for his signature.

TROUBLE FOR TEACHERS.

The Proposed Appropriation Not Enough for Salaries.

Efforts to Get the Council to Open the City's Purse Strings.

There is a long woeful wail brewing in the educational department and a law suit looming up in the distance if the Council sticks to the two cent allowance which it has apportioned to meet the expenses of the city Grammar Schools. The directors say they will not have enough money to pay the teachers' salaries and under their contract with the city there is no provision to take nothing if the fund is exhausted. Such a provision went with the teachers' employment contract two years ago but now they are hired by the year unconditionally.

The Board in its estimate asked for a little more than Auditor Snow allowed it but he figured that $215,000 would be necessary to conduct the schools and that the city's share of this should be four and a fraction cents on the dollar income.

Superintendent McClymonds is reticent about saying anything but admits that things at present look blue. "The amount we have this year," he said, "is over $20,000 less than the sum allowed last year, and we had but little to spare then. I do not fear, however, that we will have any shortage, for I think the Council will see the error of its ways and allow us more money. If, not, of course the teachers will sue the city when their pay is not forthcoming."

Assistant Secretary York, who takes a deep interest in school finances looks for nothing less than a big law suit at the end of the year.

The Council's action in cutting down the Auditor's estimate was nothing but an arbitrary slaughter and was done without looking into the matter at all. That is from the inside," he said. "It means that we will not have enough for teachers' salaries for about two months, and of course the teachers will be entitled to their pay even if we close the schools. The county has cut us one cent and our money will be very short at the end of the term."

RUSHING IT THROUGH.

The Contra Costa Road Will Be Ready in About Three Weeks.

The new road between this city and Contra Costa County is being built as rapidly as a large force of men and teams can grade it. Work was commenced near the Medau property three weeks ago and has proceeded uninterruptedly under the direction of Supervisor Talcott. It was thought, at one time, that the progress of the work would be interfered with because State Labor Commissioner Fitzgerald made objection to the men working ten instead of eight hours a day.

It is estimated that at the present rate of progress in the work the new road over the hills will be completed in about three weeks.

Rehearsals Start

The first rehearsal of the season of the First Congregational Orchestra was held last evening with an attendance of nearly fifty members, and from the work done it is expected that the orchestra will put upon the stage at the concert next week not only the largest, but the finest, ensemble of players that has yet appeared at any of its concerts.

A FIGHT FOR CHILDREN.

Opposition to the Order in the N. S. Watson Case.

The Affair Will Be Disposed of With the Divorce Monday.

The troubles which have disrupted the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Watson of Alameda will be fully aired before Judge Greene Monday next, and, anticipating that event, the Court this morning made an order touching the temporary disposition of their two children.

In June of this year, Mrs. Watson sued her husband, who is secretary of the California Powder Works, San Francisco, for divorce. The care and custody of the children, a boy aged 12 years, and a girl aged 10 years were given to the mother, the father being denied access to them.

Yesterday evening affidavits were filed in the Superior Court setting forth alleged improper conduct on the part of Mrs. Watson as a ground for relieving her of the charge of her offspring.

As a consequence of the showing made Dr. Thomas Carpenter of Alameda, was appointed guardian of the little ones and directed to immediately take them from the custody of the mother.

This morning the matter came up again before Judge Ogden when Mrs. Watson was represented by Attorney Earl. The Court stated that he had conferred with Judge Frick on the subject and he had concluded to modify the order of yesterday appointing Carpenter guardian of the children. He said he would order that the mother should be given control of the children until Monday next when the divorce case will come up for trial.

Mr. Earl wanted to know whether Dr. Carpenter would be likely to contest the matter and Judge Ogden replied that he did not think there would be any contest on the Doctor's part.

An order thereupon was issued directed to Dr. Carpenter to surrender the little ones to their mother.

Mr. Earl said that the children are temporarily quartered at the Chabot Home.

NOONE FEELS BETTER.

The District Attorney Moves to Dismiss His Case

District Attorney Snook made a motion before Judge Frick, sitting in Judge Greene's court, this morning, to dismiss the case against M. J. Noone, charged with selling liquor between midnight and 5 o'clock in the morning. The defendant had been found guilty in the Police Court.

Judge Frick declined to grant the motion, preferring to leave the case to be passed on by Judge Greene.

The ground on which the District Attorney based his motion was the fact that since the conviction of Noone in the Police Court a new ordinance regulating the closing of saloons at night has been put into effect. Such being the case he held that a conviction in the Superior Court could not be obtained.

THE KNOX FIRE.

Great Damage Done Both to the House and the Furniture.

The damage caused by the fire which broke out at 8:30 o'clock last night in the residence of Dr. Myra Knox at 958 Fourteenth street will amount to more than was at first surmised and probably will not fall far short of the $3,000 policy which the Phoenix Insurance Company carried on the place. The flames burned out the back of the house and the roof, besides doing some damage in the upper rooms. The principal loss was caused by water. The dining room was paneled with hand carved oak, done by Mrs. Knox's daughter. This is completely spoiled by water. The flooring on the lower floor is of hard wood, which is badly damaged and the plastering and papering in every room will have to be replaced.

The fire broke out in the servant's room, a small apartment built on to the rear of the house, and was caused by an overturned lamp.

Mrs Phail Favored

Bryan's Friends Are Trying to Squelch the Faction Fight.

THE CONVENTION AT BUFFALO.

Populists Agree on Fusion in New York State.

ALTGELD WINS A POINT.

Bryan Is Now Engaged in Storming the Sunny South.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Though they are absent in a body, the leadership of Senators Hill and Murphy and W. F. Sheehan, may be felt in the Democratic State Convention today.

Rumors were current early in the day that all night the wires had been carrying communications between the Senators and other old time leaders and various lieutenants now in this city, purpose being to bring about a modification of the resolution on the financial question and an endorsement of Bryan and Sewall.

It appears that two sets of resolutions have been prepared for submission to the Convention. One Elliot Danforth has in charge, is said to have the approval of Senators Hill and Murphy and Chairman Jones of the National Committee.

Jones, it is said, is willing to accept the qualified endorsement of the Chicago Convention's work, if thereby the nomination of the gold standard Democratic ticket can be avoided.

Congressman Sulzer and other radical silverites declare, however, there shall be not half hearted endorsement and the party must be freed from the domination of those designated as kickers.

The assertion is further made that a State organization will be made up independent of those who took part in the revolt at Chicago.

FUSION EFFECTED.

The fusion of the Populist and Democratic parties of New York State is an important result of the conference today.

For the active support of the ticket to be named by the Democratic State Convention the Populists will be given five representatives upon the electoral ticket and two Congressmen.

The Populists assert their union with the Democracy will result in Bryan and Sewall carrying New York by a large majority.

THE CONVENTION MEETS.

At 12.30 Chairman Hinckley rapped the convention to order.

State Senator Thomas F. Grady, temporary Chairman, addressed the convention, saying: "As loyal representatives of the Democratic constituencies, you have assembled again to declare your faith to Democratic principles, your respect for Democratic authority and your confidence in Democratic success.

"In this respect you differ from some who were for many years associated with you, using their profession of Democracy as a mask under which to conceal the purely selfish character of their political actions, and who are now leagued with your political opponents, denouncing Democratic principles, defying Democratic authority, and aiding in so far as they may to defeat the Democratic candidates.

"It is sham Democracy which submits to the will of the majority only when no selfish interest is affected or sacrificed by so doing.

"It is a sham Democracy which sets up the opinions of the few as entitled to control because of the wealth or culture or pedigree of those by whom such opinions are held.

"It is a sham Democracy which has for its purpose the undue enrichment of the man who relies for support upon what his money earns for him and the consequent unjust impoverishment of the citizen who depends upon what his labor may be able to earn.

"It is a sham Democracy which yesterday asked a bimetallic standard upon the single condition of international agreement and today confesses such a declaration was but a subterfuge with which to deceive those who are honestly favoring such a standard, and that at the time of its purpose was to establish and maintain the supremacy of gold."

Grady alluded to Governor McKinley as "a mortgaged candidate" and spurned the allegation that the Chicago platform is "a declaration favoring repudiation, riot and ruin."

Grady's address was frequently applauded, particularly the allusions to the Democrats who had taken ground against the Chicago nominees and platform.

The roll call showed contests in Albany, Monroe, Wayne and Wyoming Counties.

Ridgeway offered a resolution which was referred to the Committee on Platform endorsing the work of the Chicago convention and pledging hearty and honest support of its nominees.

After the committees were named the convention took a recess until 10 A. M. tomorrow.

Members of the Albany delegation circulated a protest against the nomination of John Boyd Thatcher on the ground that at the Saratoga Convention he declared himself for the gold standard and no recantation of that avowal has since come from him.

The announcement has been made that Tammany will throw its influence in favor of Thatcher's nomination for Governor.

In all but the Fourth District the nominees are in the present Congress. Representative Reyburn of the Fourth was opposed by Senator Quay, hence Young received the nomination.

GOLD MEN STEP OUT.

Gathering of the Democrats in State Convention in Connecticut.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.—The Democratic State Convention, which assembled today, began business with every indication of being as memorable an occasion as has ever arisen in the political history of Connecticut.

While the delegates numbering 800 were almost solidly for the endorsement of the Chicago platform and candidates, the whole machinery of the party was in the hands of the gold standard men.

Anticipating an upset the twelve members of the State Central Committee resigned.

It was rumored today before the convention met that there would be a bolt of gold standard men.

Chairman David of the State Central Committee called the convention to order.

William Kennedy, temporary chairman, aroused tumultuous cheering by praising the Chicago platform and candidates.

The temporary officers were made permanent.

After Chairman Kennedy handed in the resignations of the Gold State Committeemen delegates he moved they be accepted with the "thanks of the Convention."

The motion was adopted amid loud cheering.

The new State Committee was appointed, all the members of which are in accord with the declarations of the convention on the currency question.

Presidential Electors were selected and the following nominations for State offices made:

Governor, James E. Sargent; Lieutenant-Governor, S. A. Crandall; Secretary of State, Homer S. Cummings.

QUAY'S HOT FIGHT.

He Is Beaten Out in the Sheriff's Convention at Philadelphia.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—Republican Congressional, Senatorial, Representative and County Conventions were held in this city today.

The hardest contest in the history of the party in Philadelphia resulted.

The fight between the Quay and anti-Quay forces has been waged for months.

In the Sheriff's Convention, the anti-Quay, or "Administration" faction won, nominating James L. Miles by 671 votes against 319 for Alexander Crow Jr., leader of the Quayites. There was much excitement, the police being called in to preserve order.

The following Congressional nominations were made: First District: Henry H. Bingham; Second: Robert Adams Jr.; Third: J. Frederick Halterman; Fourth: James Rankin Young; Fifth: Alfred C. Harmer.

AN EARLY START.

Bryan Gets a Warm Welcome in the Tennessee Towns.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 16.—William J. Bryan began work at 2 o'clock this morning with a speech at Somerset, a Republican stronghold, to 500 citizens.

They cheered loudly. Bryan said if between now and election day they would get up as early as they did this morning, and work as hard in behalf of the cause of Democracy as he worked yesterday, there would be no question of the success of the cause. He asked them to study the financial question.

At Oliver Springs a Reception Committee from Knoxville got on the train. There was a stop of two hours at Knoxville.

All night people had been coming by excursion trains and farmers for miles around had driven in.

The oldest citizens could not remember when such a crowd had gathered to greet any man.

The train arrived at Knoxville shortly before 8 o'clock. Bryan was taken immediately to a speaker's stand erected in front of the Court House, and was introduced by ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor.

On the stand were seated Judge Clark of the United States District Court, Chief Justice D. L. Snodgrass of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, W. D. Beard, W. C. Caldwell, W. K. McAllister and J. S. Wilkes, Associate Judges of the same court.

Bryan's appearance was the signal for tremendous applause.

ALL SETTLED.

Democratic Electors Resign and the Fusion Is Perfected.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—The last obstacle to complete fusion on Presidential Electors in Illinois between Silver Democrats and Populists has been removed and fusion finally effected.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee today Chairman Hinrichsen announced he had received the resignations of three Democratic Electoral candidates. Their places will be given to Populists.

On the State ticket, W. F. Beck's resignation as a nominee for Auditor, was accepted and A. L. Maxwell, a Populist nominee named in his place.

IN ALTGELD'S FAVOR.

The Head of the Ticket Left Blank by Illinois Populists.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—After nine hours' exciting debate the Populist Convention tacitly endorsed Governor Altgeld by leaving the head of the ticket blank.

The following are the nominations: Lieutenant-Governor, Henry D. Lloyd; Secretary of State, L. A. Quellmalz; Auditor, Grant Dunbar; Attorney-General, E. I. Burdick; State Treasurer, Joseph Schwengen; Trustee State University, Mrs. Fannie Kavanaugh; Electors-at-large, A. H. Allen, O. L. Bears.

The platform says: "We do most heartily endorse the wisdom of the National Convention in the nomination of Thomas E. "WILDLY RADICAL."

One Who Knows Bryan Well Decries His Presidential Ambition.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—In the Republican County Convention here one of the principal speakers was Judge Richard Yates of Jacksonville, Ill., son of War Governor Yates of Illinois, who took occasion to say that from his association with Mr. Bryan as school mate and townsman he knew him to be unfit for the office of President.

Later, when asked by a Star reporter to explain his statement, Judge Yates said:

"I mean that Mr. Bryan's disposition to be extremely and wildly radical and uncompromising on any question. He was the bitter champion of everything he believed when a youth and could see no good in anything opposed to his theories. I mean that if he is elected and it should become evident that free coinage wouldn't do, Mr. Bryan will persist in having free coinage. He is an enthusiast who sticks to his enthusiasm."

Bourke Cochran to Speak.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—Hon. Bourke Cockran will speak in Kansas City on October 7th during Carnival week, according to the statement of Judge J. McD. Trimble of the National Democratic Club of Jackson County. Although the programme of Mr. Cockran's day in Kansas City has not been arranged, the Auditorium, the largest house in the city, has already been secured for the occasion.

C. R. BENNETT'S DOWNFALL

The Ex-Secretary Will Be Brought Up for Sentence Tomorrow.

Judge Ogden Will Then Dispose of the George Gray Matter.

C. R. Bennett's time has come. He has figured in many capacities before courts in this State and tomorrow he will appear before Judge Ogden to be sentenced to the penitentiary for attempting to murder George Gray. It is expected, unless something unlooked for transpires, that this will bring to a close a strife and vendetta which has existed during the past three years between the Gray and Bennett families.

Gray accused Bennett of leading his daughter astray, and one night in front of the City Hall three years ago, sought to kill him by firing several shots from a revolver. Bennett found safety in flight. Little more than a year ago Gray again sought to shoot Bennett in a broad gauge car. The bullet went astray. Bennett fled from the car. He returned, however, in a short time and fired a shot at Gray, but the bullet struck another man than the one whom it had been aimed. Gray was arrested on the charge of attempting to commit murder and was acquitted.

Bennett was then arrested. He was charged with assault to commit murder. He was tried and found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon. He was granted a new trial on the ground that the verdict was not supported by the evidence. He was then found guilty as charged, namely, of assault to commit murder. He moved for a new trial on the ground that he had been acquitted by the former verdict of the charge of assaul to commit murder and had been twice placed in jeopardy for that offense. The motion was granted and the prosecution then appealed to the Supreme Court.

The opinion of that tribunal, which has just been received, was written by Justice Garoutte and closes as follows:

"While it is true the constitution declares that no man is to be twice placed in jeopardy for the same offense, still as Mr. Bishop says: 'The law's methods must be pursued by him who seeks the protection of the law' and this the defendant has not done. Again, the fact that the first trial was had in the same court and before the same judge as the second trial and before the same judge as the second trial, in no way excused the necessity of the plea of once in jeopardy. The whole question of once in jeopardy was entirely foreign to the case, unless raised by a special plea, and when so raised an issue of fact was presented which the jury alone possessed the power to pass upon. For the foregoing reasons the order granting a new trial is reversed and the case remanded."

The Stock Market.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The stock market opened quiet and irregular, with changes, mainly advances. Sugar and Manhattan, ex-dividends 3 and 2½ per cent respectively, gained ½ per cent each on light transactions. The industrial group was selected as a vulnerable point of attack by the bears, and under liberal offerings reacted sharp fractions. The depression was communicated to the general list. Foreign orders are very slim.

Silver is 65½ and lead 2.60.

Watson Wanted.

Sheriff White this morning received a message from Mission San Jose that a man named George Watson, who had been working on Rainey's ranch, had stolen a small gray horse and buggy from a minister of that place.

The name of the minister was not given.

At the Woman's Suffrage mass meeting to be held at the Tabernacle tomorrow evening the regular collection will be dispensed with and a charge of ten cents will be made at the door.

LOCATED AN OPIUM DEN.

It Has Been Running In Full Blast on the East Side.

One of the Smokers Taken to Jail and More Arrests Will Follow.

Constable Quinlan has discovered an opium den in full blast in Fruitvale and today placed behind the bars a man named Charles Bernal whom he arrested in the very act of smoking the pipe. Bernal was brought to the County Jail with the full smoking outfit which he was found using, and District Attorney Snook has prepared a complaint charging him with frequenting a place maintained for the purpose of selling opium for smoking purposes.

The prisoner feels that he is in a bad box and has promised, if dealt with leniently, to give up information which will tend to the breaking up of the den which, he says, is frequented by white men and Chinese who reside in the neighborhood.

The joint is run by a Chinaman named Hong Lee and is located off the county road between Thirty-seventh and Fruitvale avenues. It is said that the place has been in operation for some time but has been conducted in so quiet a manner as not to have aroused the suspicion of the Constable until a few days ago. Since his attention was called to the place, Quinlan has watched it closely and today noticed a man going into the joint with a great deal of circumspection.

After the man had been in there for some time, Quinlan entered the house and, when he addressed the Chinaman in charge as to what had become of the man he had seen enter, was met with a silence and a stare of astonishment which was really remarkable.

Quinlan smelt the drug and knew that it was being smoked in one of the rooms of the place. He opened the doors of several of the apartments but found nobody. Finally, he tried a door which was locked on the inside. He demanded that the door be opened but received no response. He then burst it open and found Bernal just about getting under the effects of the drowsy drug. Even the arrest of the smoker could not phase the Chinaman. Bernal's arrest will have the effect of temporarily breaking up the joint, and it is expected that evidence will be forthcoming that will lead to the arrest of Hong Lee the proprietor.

A BUTCHERS' PICNIC.

An Enjoyable Outing Is to Be Taken Sunday to San Jose.

The Journeymen Butchers never do anything by halves and, as a consequence, in their forthcoming excursion, Sunday next, to San Jose, they have made arrangements for an outing on a grand scale which will be a source of pleasure to thousands of people.

The excursion will be under the auspices of San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Lodges Nos. 1, 2 and 3, Journeymen Butchers' Benevolent and Protective Association of the Pacific Coast.

It is the intention to run trains on the Broad Gauge road, leaving Third and Valencia streets, San Francisco, at 9 o'clock in the morning and by the Narrow Gauge, leaving this city from Fourteenth and Webster streets at 8:45 A. M.

The fare for the round trip will be only one dollar. This is a remarkably low rate and places the ride, with admission to the picnic and barbecue, within reach of all. The barbecue alone will be worth the price of the round trip ticket. It will be held in Agricultural Park where provisions have been made to accommodate thousands of people.

The returning train will leave San Jose at 6:45 P. M.

A Fourth Ward Call.

A Republican rally will be held under the auspices of the Fourth Ward Republican Club at its club rooms, corner Eighth and Market streets, on Friday evening next. The principal speakers of the evening will be George D. Gray of this city and Louis Titus of San Francisco. The attendance of all Republicans is desired.

Mr. Titus will address the meeting upon the all-absorbing topic, the silver question.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SACRAMENTO, July 20, 1896.

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California, at its thirty-first session, beginning on the seventh day of January, A. D. 1895, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, proposed the following prescribed amendments to the Constitution of the State of California, to-wit:

Amendment Number One.

(Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 23.)

ARTICLE XIII.

Section 1. All property in the State not exempt under the laws of the United States, or this Constitution, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law. The word "property" as used in this article and section is hereby declared to include moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, dues, franchises and all other matters and things, real, personal and mixed, capable of private ownership; provided, that property used for free public libraries and free public museums, growing crops, mortgages, trust deeds, property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to the United States, this State, or to any county or municipal corporation within this State, shall be exempt from taxation. The Legislature may provide for a reduction from credits of debts due bona fide residents of this State.

Section 2. Section four of article thirteen of this Constitution is hereby repealed.

Section 3. Section five of article thirteen of this Constitution is hereby repealed.

Amendment Number Two.

(Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 8.)

ARTICLE II.

Section 5. All elections by the people shall be by ballot or by such other method as may be prescribed by law; provided, that secrecy in voting be observed.

Amendment Number Three.

(Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 19.)

ARTICLE XII.

Section 3. The liability of stockholders of corporations or joint stock associations shall be limited by the face value of the shares of the subscribed capital stock or shares of such corporation or association; and whenever any shares have been fully paid up, the holder of such shares shall not be further liable to such corporation or association, or the creditors thereof, on that account. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association, whose capital stock is not fully paid up, shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder or shareholder, as the amount unpaid upon the stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole amount unpaid upon the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association during the term of office of such Director or Trustee.

Amendment Number Four.

(Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 25.)

ARTICLE XI.

Section 6. Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws; but the Legislature, by general laws, shall provide for the incorporation, organization and classification, in proportion to population, of cities and towns, which laws may be altered, amended or repealed. Cities and towns heretofore organized or incorporated may become organized under such general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election shall so determine, and shall organize in conformity therewith; and cities and towns heretofore or hereafter organized, and all charters thereof framed or adopted by authority of this Constitution, except in municipal affairs, shall be subject to and controlled by general laws.

Amendment Number Five.

(Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 13.)

ARTICLE XI.

Section 8½. It shall be competent, in all charters framed under the authority given by section eight of article eleven of this Constitution, to provide, in addition to those provisions allowable by this Constitution and by the laws of the State, as follows:

1. For the constitution, regulation, government and jurisdiction of Police Courts, and for the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the Judges of such courts shall be elected or appointed, and for the compensation of said Judges and of their clerks and attaches.

2. For the manner in which, the times at which and the terms for which the members of Boards of Education shall be elected or appointed, and the number which shall constitute any one of such Boards.

3. For the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of the Boards of Police Commissioners shall be elected or appointed, and for the constitution, regulation, compensation and government of such Boards and of the municipal police force.

4. For the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of all Boards of Election shall be elected or appointed, and for the constitution, regulation, compensation, and government of such Boards, and of their clerks and attaches; and for all expenses incident to the holding of any election.

Where a city and county government has been merged and consolidated into one municipal government, it shall also be competent in any charter framed under said section eight of said article eleven, to provide for the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the several county officers shall be elected or appointed, for their compensation, and for the number of deputies that each shall have, and for the compensation payable to each of such deputies.

Amendment Number Six

(Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 11.)

ARTICLE II.

NOW, THEREFORE, Pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution, and an Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to provide for the submission of certain proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of California to the qualified electors for their approval," approved March 7, A. D. 1883, the said amendments are submitted, to be separately voted upon by ballot by the qualified electors of the State on

WAR AGAINST MICROBES.

Novel School Regulations by Indiana's Health Board.

Remarkable Precautions for the Prevention of Disease.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 16.—The Indiana State Board of Health has caught the microbe fever and has issued a set of rules to govern the public and private schools of the State, which will, if enforced, turn the schools topsy-turvy.

Under these rules the slate and slate pencil of yore will go. Instead must be used paper pads and lead pencils.

Pencils and pens, and desks must be disinfected every day.

The floors, windows and woodwork of the schools must be scrubbed every day with disinfectants.

Banisters and tops of tables must be treated with a disinfectant once a week.

No unwashed boy or girl must be admitted.

Open water buckets for drinking are forbidden. The water must be drawn from a faucet and a small cup used.

A general anathema is pronounced against all children who "whoop" or otherwise cough, who have sore mouths, or who exhibit cutaneous evidence of disease.

The action of the Board has created a sensation in school circles. It is not believed the orders will be obeyed.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1896

During the month of August the stringency in the New York money market led to an increase in the aggregate circulation of the national banks in that month and September from $225,942,455 to $230,725,376. The latter figure is greater than at any time since 1889, when it was $229,000,000. The increase of notes marks a certain degree of elasticity, but not so much of it as is needed. This money went into business channels. This elasticity of the National banking system is ont of its best features. Every dollar put out was as good as gold.

Dr. Nansen, on the arrival of the Fram at Christiania was greeted with an extraordinary popular demonstration. The city was gaily decorated and everything possible was done to express the honor in which the citizens held the returning explorer. Great enthusiasm was manifested. Among those who took part in the demonstration was 12,000 members of the Guilds, many students, etc. They formed a guard of honor along the route leading to the castle, where Nansen was cordially welcomed. Here a banquet was tendered to him and he was decorated by the King and by the Crown Prince.

The World some days ago predicted that Sewall would come off the Democratic ticket and that Watson's name would be put on after the Maine election. Mr. Sewall was a National banker, and the Populists correctly assumed that he could not be in favor of abolishing the National Banks as they desire. He had been a railroad president, and they knew he could not sympathize with their plan for governmental ownership of railroads. He is a "protectionist," a "corporationist," the possessor of a comfortable fortune and opposed to an income tax, which they favor. Therefore the Populists "had no use for him." Watson has been heaving rocks at Sewall for the last month. Now the trajectory rocks will increase.

In a recent letter to the New York Tribune Andrew Carnegel remarks upon the millions of spindles standing idle, upon iron mines closed, upon furnaces blown out, and upon every manufacturing concern in the country running with reduced forces. Then he adds: "There is only one reason for this paralysis in business, and that is the threat of reckless, ignorant men to lower the standard of money." And then the Boston Herald rises to remark "Only one reason," be it observed, is the language of the eminent manufacturer in treating of the business depression, and that reason the currency! It is refreshing to find so intelligent a gentleman, with such thoroughly practical knowledge upon the subject, agreeing with those who have argued that this distress is not to be assigned to the tariff. He leaves that out of the subject, and attributes it solely to the currency."

An Inspector of Customs has recently described some of the fashionable ways of cheating the revenue. There was a wealthy woman who went back and forth on the ocean steamers three or four times a year. We suspected her, because from inquiries on land we found she had no visible means of income and knew no people except tradesmen. We watched her on these trips, but could find nothing in her baggage. To be sure of this we had inspectors, one after another, run through her trunk. The bottom, sides and leather top were plugged, but nothing could we find. One day a female inspector called me. "That woman is among the passengers again," said she.

"What woman?" I asked.

"The woman with the grapes on her hat," said she.

"The grapes on her hat!" repeated I, as my eyes rested upon the familiar walking hat. And why does she wear grapes always?"

"Unless we are sure of our ground we dare not subject passengers to unpleasantness. I was not sure, and subterfuge was my only resort. Brushing past her with a big valise on my shoulder, I managed to hit her hat. With a cry she put her hands on her head.

"It is nothing, madam," said the inspectress, "but one of your grapes. It is broken."

"My grapes!" gasped the woman.

"Yes, and, madam, you doubtless knew that this diamond was inside of it. Step into this office, please."

The Warning of a Patriot.

General Francis E. Spinner was Treasurer of the United States during the Civil War, and for many years thereafter. During the most trying financial crisis that this country has ever experienced, his wise and conservative course won for him the reputation of one of the great financiers of the world. During his last days he manifested the keenest interest in financial questions, and especially that of free silver coinage, warning the country that such a measure would precipitate a financial panic. His last article was published in Leslie's Weekly. Here is the closing paragraph:

"I am nearly eight-eight years old, and for more than half a century have watched and taken an interest in the monetary and commercial affairs of our country. I have no interest of friends or self to subserve. I am standing confronting an open grave, and expect soon to sink into one. I love my country greatly, and I love its people more. The prosperity of our country and the happiness of its people that now are, and of the generations that are to follow are the subjects of solicitude nearest my heart. I cannot bear to sink into that grave without giving this my last solemn warning. If the country would avoid a great calamity let it restore gold to be the sole standard of values, and the consequent measure of all transferable commodities. Fortify the United States Treasury with gold coin, gradually replace the warehouse silver certificates with Treasury notes of all denominations, from a five-cent to a thousand-dollar note, based upon and redeemable from the gold on deposit in the Treasury. Issue low interest bearing interchangeable currency bonds. This currency would not only have the gold in the Treasury, but all that sixty-five million people possess, as a guarantee for its redemption. Such an arrangement of the currency would constitute the Treasury of the United States into a safe insurance office against commercial revulsions and monetar panics. On the other hand, an illy constituted and depreciated circulating medium, a dual standard of values, a redundant, inflated currency, based on a greatly depreciated silver coin, such as the silver cranks desire, are the she-wolves that will breed and litter want of confidence, distrust, fears, failures, and panics upon our country, and disaster and ruin upon our people. The monetary course now being pursued is as sure to bring disaster as effect follows cause. Let the people be warned of the danger that is before them."

Los Angeles "Herald" and Agricultural College.

When the Los Angeles Herald brings out its blunderbuss it may hit a barn or a stuffed figure or wildly shoot into the air. When the Alliance Club of this city went to Los Angeles that paper published a tissue of misrepresentations about the whole affair. Common decency, if not common courtesy, would have suggested that it should tell the truth. But the strain might have been too great.

Now and again it maligns the College of Agriculture. It reiterates that the College is not doing its share of the educational work because its list of graduates is a small one. That is not the fault of that department. It is the fault of the farmers of the State, who do not send their boys there to be educated.

The Agricultural College of Massachusetts is a separate institution located at Amherst, where there is one of the best all round college institutions in the country. But there are no long lists of graduates there. Not so many from year to year as could be counted on ones fingers.

But in neither instance is the institution a failure because it is educating the community. The Agricultural College is doing good work in various parts of the State. It has already added more to the productive value of agriculture here than the institution has ever cost. It is now about time that the Herald should get out its horn and toot for the division of the State.

The Populist record in Colorado ought to secure the defeat of that ticket this year. Waite has been nominated. The Executive Committee of the Business Men's League of Denver composed of Republicans and Democrats, declared in 1894 that Populist rule there had utterly prostrated the credit of the State and that it had destroyed not less than $300,000,000 of values. It was pointed out that Colorado's credit once stood so high that in the census of 1890 its borrowing power ranked next to that of New York, but this borrowing power was paralyzed "by the accidental ascendancy of a party standing for repudiation and flatism." A further object lesson illustrating the blighting effect of Populism was presented in the statement that the property of Denver was assessed at $100,000,000, and was actually worth three times that great total, when the fateful Populists obtained power in the State, but the average selling price of this property, pending the overthrow of Waiteism, which is one of the many synonyms of Populism, had fallen off two thirds. At least half of the shrinkage was directly due "to the destruction of confidence by Populist misrule."

A citizen of Scranton writes to the Washington Times. "We are trying an interesting experiment in our town." "It is a municipal employment bureau, where both applicants for employment and persons in need of help in their homes or business may register their wants without charge. The new department entails not one cent of extra expense upon the city, except the trifling cost of a registry book. The bureau is in charge and under the control of the Police Department, and all the labor connected with it is done by officers already on the payroll of the municipality. Thus the scheme will not involve the employment of extra help. Was any such experiment ever tried in Oakland? And why not?

Senator Hill gets a great many punches in his political ribs just now. He is, says the Syracuse Post, "between the devil and the deep sea. As a man of intelligence and education, he understands the pernicious effect of the free-silver movement. He has denounced it in public, and he did all in his power at Chicago to prevent the Convention from declaring for it. But Senator Hill is also a machine politician. He worships the fetich of party regularity; it has been his boast that he has stood by the ticket through good and ill repute; he has gone down to defeat under the party flag, and like a machine politician, he clings tenaciously to the organization."

Some Political Complications.

The rumor appears to have a good foundation that both the names of Sewall and Watson will be removed from the Demo-Populist ticket. Sewall was nominated to balance by an extreme Eastern name the extreme Western one of Bryan. It would mollify Eastern conservative Democrats. Moreover, Sewall was rich and would be able to make a handsome contribution to the campaign fund. Then he was a solid business man, ship builder, banker, railway President, and would in this respect make up for the utter lack of business qualifications on the part of Bryan.

But these very qualifications on the part of Sewall, were offensive to the Populists. They did not want an enterprising, successful business man on their ticket. They would replace Sewall's name with that of Watson, a southern politician and lawyer who in the place of any solid qualifications, had the genuine southern yell. This man has assailed Sewall and threatened Bryan.

Now the Fusionists are trying to find a compromise. Just before the election, and in the heat of the campaign, the question is seriously discussed whether it is not best to sever these two tails of a ticket, and substitute a name which will be more acceptable to the two wings of the party. Sewall is too respectable and Watson is not respectable enough. One holds his tongue and attends to his business, and the other howls incessantly and threatens the disruption of the party.

Judge Clark of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, is one of the favorite names now mentioned. He is a free silver coinage man who some months ago, made a tour through Mexico and wrote a number of descriptive papers on the industrial condition of that country, which were published in the Arena. Clark maintained that the silver basis of Mexico would be a good thing for the United States. The treatment of the question was superficial, but well calculated to tickle the fancy of those who are now mentioning his name with so much favor for a place on the Fusion ticket in the place of Sewall and Watson.

Crucial Days for the Sultan.

There are now assembling in the waters near Constantinople, one of the largest war fleets that was ever brought together in that vicinity. These, at the last accounts, were to be stationed at points where a landing could be made with the greatest facility for the purpose of suppressing another riot in Constantinople, or what is probably the ultimate fact, to stop any further massacres by an armed European force. If this step is once taken, it would follow immediately thereafter that the Sultan would be deposed. That event may occur without the interposition of such a force.

In a crisis such as is now threatened, England would probably lead off. But a landing of forces from the ships of that country, would be followed at once by similar landings made by French, German and American ships. Russia would also not be a quiet spectator of such an event.

Representations have already gone to England that the lives of her subjects are in danger. That power in these last days, does not make any movement of an aggressive character, until there is a strong public opinion created in favor of it. The formation of such an opinion is now going on rapidly in England. Gladstone is active once more in that behalf. Great events affecting the Ottoman dynasty, seem to be rapidly maturing. The dethronement of the Sultan is one of the probable events very near at hand. If brought about by force, the next step might involve the very existence of Turkey in Europe.

Home Talks of McKinley.

When McKinley talks to farmers, as he did yesterday to a delegation fifteen hundred strong who went to Canton—he has something to say worth hearing. He does not tickle their ears with imaginary theories but comes right down to practical talk. They want to know what is best for them and the country; and he tells them without any circumlocution.

They want a protective tariff sufficient to meet all the expenses of the government, and which will at the same time make an end of all debts growing out of treasury deficiencies. They want that kind of reciprocity that seeks out the markets of the world for surplus agricultural and manufacturing products. They want the enlargement of the home market by the opening of every manufactory in the land. They want sound money, which can never be secured by free and unlimited coinage of silver, nor by the issuance of irredeemable paper money. They want an American policy which turns the capital and labor of this country to the very best account. What is good for the farmers of Ohio is good for the whole country.

BOX-PLEATED FRONTS.

They Are on All the Fall Coats.

The fall coat is here. It's a small coat, very unobtrusive. It has many of the peculiarities of the English box coat, but they're modified and do not clash with our ideas of beauty. On the contrary, the coat is very fetching.

It is tight fitting in the back, loose in front, untrimmed, dark blue or tan in color, and without buttons, so far as the eye can tell

With blue serge suits is a sort of bolero, that is reasonably tight fitting in the back and ends just above the waist-line. From each shoulder a box pleat starts and falls stiffly down the front, which is edged with a row of white and jet passementerie.

The garment is sleeveless. By making it without sleeves, the effect of a combination costume is secured. In the gown mentioned the waist was of white silk. Loops of blue serge were fastened around the arms, and lined with white silk fell gracefully over the sleeves.

Marchioness Li.

Marchioness Li, wife of Li Hung Chang, according to a Paris exchange, is a very handsome and exceedingly learned lady. Although beyond two scores and ten, she is described as looking less than thirty. In her magnificent home, on the banks of the Pei Ho, she lives in royal splendor, surrounded by a large court, by song birds, peacocks, aquaria, pottery, gems and botanical collections. About one thousand attendants are at her disposal. In her wardrobe are guarded two thousand coats, twelve hundred pairs of trousers and five hundred fur robes. Her aristocratic feet do not allow her to walk more than a few yard at a time, and so she is carried through the rooms of her palace and along the picturesque paths of its grand park. Twice a day she takes a bath in oil of orange and acacia blossoms, which is followed by an airing in the coolie sedan. Her hair is dressed in fifty different fashions of the coiffeur's art, and her generous allowance enables her to excel not only in lavish expenditures for her personal outfit, but also for charity and general humanitarian objects.—London Sketch.

MERCHANTS IN MOURNING

Resolutions of Regret for Hugh Wilson and J. H. O'Brien.

No Business Transacted at the Meeting of the Exchange.

The Directors of the Merchants' Exchange met in the Exchange rooms in the Central Bank Building last night, President W. V. Witcher presiding.

Directors Fish, Tum Suden, Sohst, Cushing, Wixson, Sinclair, Britton, Farwell, Boyer, Hunt, Reed, Meese and Coward answered to the roll call.

After the reading of the minutes by Secretary Webb N. Pearce, the Directory adjourned without transacting further business out of respect to the memory of the late John H. O'Brien and Hugh Wilson, both of whom were honored members of the Exchange.

Pictures of both Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Wilson will be draped in mourning and hung in the rooms of the Exchange.

Resolutions of mourning with respect to the deceased members were then adopted. Copies of the same were ordered to be sent to the families of the deceased as also to the press. The following were introduced regarding Hugh Wilson:

"All things are with God.

"Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has, through His divine understanding, removed from our numbers our fellow merchant, Hugh Wilson; and

"Whereas, his untimely end has taken from us a young man of great promise, a young man possessed of all the honesty and justice of an earnest, upright business man and citizen, a faithful son and brother; therefor, be it

"Resolved, That we, his fellow workers in the Merchants' Exchange, mourn with his relatives and friends his untimely taking off; and be it further

"Resolved, That out of respect to our late member we adjourn this meeting without further transaction of business.

The following resolutions regarding the death of Mr. O'Brien were then adopted:

"Whereas, Almighty God has seen fit, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst our friend and fellow tradesman, the late John H. O'Brien; and

"Whereas, The business community has sustained in his loss the earnest work of a good merchant, an upright and loyal citizen, a faithful friend, a good husband and father; therefor be it

"Resolved, That the Merchants' Exchange mourn his untimely loss; and be it further

"Resolved, That we extend to his family our sincere sympathy in this their hour of trial and bereavement; and be it further

"Resolved, That, out of respect to our late member, we adjourn this meeting without further transaction of business."

AMONG THE POLITICIANS

A Rousing Republican Rally in the Fourth Ward.

M. C. CHAPMAN'S ADDRESS.

Campaign Meetings Increase as Election Draws Near.

FUSIONISTS ARE IN TROUBLE.

Protection Principles Sure to Win in This County.

The Fourth Ward McKinley Republican Club held its regular meeting last night at People's Hall, on Sixth street, near Market. The hall had been tastily decorated with flags, bunting and Japanese lanterns.

The club was called to order by the President, Dr. Fisher, at 8 o'clock, and the regular order of business was taken up. This was soon dispatched, and then the President introduced M. C. Chapman, ex-Mayor of Oakland, whose appearance on the platform was greeted with a storm of applause. Mr. Chapman addressed the assembled Republicans as follows:

"Fellow citizens and gentlemen of the Fourth Ward McKinley Club: It seems almost superfluous to talk to this audience. You all seem to be McKinley men, yet I hope there are some Democrats here tonight. About three years ago we had prosperous times in the United States; there was not a city, town or hamlet, from Maine to California, that was not happy and prosperous. The people of the United States have had a high protective tariff destroyed three times by the Democratic party, and the after effect was most disastrous to American industry and American labor. The free coinage of silver is one of the greatest disasters that could befall this country. All the gold would be cornered.

"The Demo-Pops say there is not enough money in the country. We have more money now than we ever had; there is no scarcity of money. What we want to do is to coin more labor. The banks are full of money. The Democratic party never was a friend to the American workingman, only once, when it was in favor of protection. That was when they voted against the immigration of Chinese labor, for he who voted against cheap labor voted for protection. A short time ago the Democratic party claimed the Republican party was a corpse, but I think that when they read the telegrams from Maine last night they thought we had been resurrected.

"When I say this, I speak for myself alone. I am opposed to the re-election of a United States Senator who says a free trader should go to Congress. Perkins is a good sort of fellow, but he has not the courage of his convictions. What right has he to discredit the nominee of the Republican party? Perkins is a nerveless and timid man, and contrasts strangely with Morino, one of the Marshals of Napoleon; he was also a timid man, but had the courage of his convictions. If George C. Perkins had a little of that man's courage, he should be re-elected. I have no personal animosity against Senator Perkins, but every Republican should be loyal to the party and not support a man who in this district is against the funding bill, but up in Grove L. Johnson's district is in favor of it. Now I have only a word more. Go out like the Methodists and do missionary work among the Democrats and win them over to the side of protection and reciprocity under the leadership of our foremost statesman, William McKinley." (Applause.)

After Mr. Chapman spoke, Senator Ell Denison addressed the audience. He said he backed up Mr. Chapman's exposition of Senator Perkins' position, and would think it over deeply before he helped to make Perkins a Senator next winter.

Chas. E. Snook, W. W. Britton, Mr. Gottshall and Mr. Ingler of the Sixth Ward addressed the club, after which it adjourned to meet next Tuesday night at the same place.

DON'T WANT HONORS.

R. M. Fitzgerald Refuses to Be the Chairman of the County Committee.

Ever since M. J. Laymance, Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, announced that he would not allow himself to be renamed for the position he holds, speculation has been rife as to whom the honor would fall.

Rumor is responsible for the idea that the peace between the Laymance-Fitzgerald factions meant that R. M. Fitzgerald would seek the place, but such an idea is erroneous.

In speaking of the matter today, Mr. Fitzgerald said: "I most certainly am not a candidate for the position, and I would not accept it if tendered to me. I am devoting altogether too much time to politics now for my own good, and I must have an opportunity to attend to business."

SILVER'S CHAMPIONS.

A Big Rally Is to Be Held by the Party Tonight.

There will be a big Silver meeting at Metropolitan Hall, San Francisco, tonight, at which Frank G. Newlands and M. F. Taylor will speak.

Music and campaign songs by a glee club will liven up the proceedings.

The affair is under the direction of the California Silver Campaign Committee.

Spoke to Veterans.

There was a large meeting of the Veteran Republican League of Alameda in Linderman's Opera House last evening, at which Judge J. J. Allen, Judge Langan of Livermore and Judge A. B. Hunt of Alameda delivered telling addresses.

Religion and Politics.

A debate on the financial question between John P. Irish and Judge E. M. Gibson has been arranged by the Men's Club of the First Free Baptist Church, Twenty-first street, between San Pablo avenue and Brush street. The subject is "For Free and Unlimited Coinage of Silver," and the date is next Friday evening.

The Fusion Fizzle.

The Demo-Populist Fusion Committee made another fizzle last night, when it was to have met, but failed to do so, owing to the absence of a quorum.

The lack of interest being taken in the movement is a result of an attempt to definitely apportion officers between the two parties, prior to the conventions. The Populists did not like the idea, and have kept away from the conferences since.

Another effort at a meeting will be made tonight.

A Republican Rally.

Saturday evening, September 26th, will be the date of the next Republican demonstration in Alameda County. As on some former occasions, the Tabernacle will be the scene, and several speakers of ability will be heard.

Prior to the meeting, a street parade will take place, in which the Alliance Club and the Young Men's Republican League will participate.

Good Talkers.

Judge J. A. Waymire of Alameda and Colonel J. P. Jackson addressed the meeting of the San Francisco National Republican League last evening.

Perkins Will Speak.

The West End Republicans of San Francisco will hold a meeting at the Chutes tomorrow night, which will be addressed by Senator Perkins and Congressman Loud.

Political Equality.

The Political Equality Club will hold a parlor meeting at the residence of Mrs. I. N. Chapman, 2225 Pacific avenue, Alameda, Tuesday evening, September 22d.

Another meeting will be held Friday evening.

A Southern Convention.

The Riverside County Republican Convention, which met yesterday and refused to instruct its Assembly candidates to vote for Perkins for United States Senator. Resolutions were passed endorsing the Senator's work at Washington.

William Collier, Esq., a warm friend of Perkins, offered a minority report to the effect that the convention instruct its nominee for the Assembly to vote for Perkins to succeed himself. The reading of the report was the signal for the beginning of a heated debate. John G. North, George Frost and other leaders of the party strenuously opposed the adoption of the minority report, and it was defeated by a big majority. This means that the Assemblyman from the Seventy-seventh District will go to Sacramento unpledged, as it is conceded that the Republican candidate will have a walk-over.

George H. Dole was nominated for Assembly.

Given a Chance.

Edward Mack, one of the boys arrested for stealing copper bond wire from the Alameda and Oakland Electric Railway, was allowed by Judge Frick this morning to go free on his own recognizance. It was shown that he is only 13 years of age and that his sister had promised to send him to school in the country and keep him there two years. District Attorney Snook assented to the proposition.

PRIMARY POLLING.

Democrats Are Holding Their Election Throughout the County.

CLUB ROLLS BEING USED.

Everything Is Going Smoothly and no Friction Is Expected.

VOTING HERE TONIGHT.

The Convention Is to Be Held at the Tabernacle Saturday.

The Democrats of the county are in the throes of a primary election today, which will continue until a few hours of midnight. Inside the city the polls will not open until 7 o'clock tonight, and then only at the various club headquarters, though in the outside townships, particularly Eden, Murray and Washington, open primaries are in progress, the voting commencing shortly after noon.

Each precinct represents a newly formed club, and those Democrats who did not put their names on the roll prior to 8 o'clock last night will not be allowed to participate in the selection of delegates to the County Convention.

As soon as the call was issued by the County Central Committee, each committeeman was authorized to organize a club in his precinct. This was done largely, and in the majority of the wards delegates will be selected by precincts, though in some cases several of the clubs have been combined to elect a blanket ticket for the ward.

The apportionment is one delegate for each fifty votes or majority thereof cast for Governor Budd in the last election, while in some precincts where there are not the requisite number of votes one delegate is allowed anyway.

The election is entirely under the direction of the County Committeemen, and as there are no contests matters are running with surprising smoothness.

The Laymance-English-Fitzgerald factions are now a unit again. This was brought about through a conference held yesterday between John English and Bob Fitzgerald, when each named the other as delegates to the convention. It was a love feast all around, and the reunion of Democratic forces is a cause for much satisfaction by many who have been mixed in the factional differences existing during the past six months.

In the First Ward there are to be nine delegates elected, one to each precinct except the Third, which gets two. Here the committeemen are F. W. Leonhardt, T. L. Cortage, B. F. Connolly, J. J. Driscoll, M. Farrell, E. J. Murphy and J. C. Bullock.

Ten delegates are allotted to the Second Ward, two each going to the First, Second and Sixth Precincts. The committeemen in charge are P. J. Brophy, W. K. McKee, E. J. Erickson, W. H. Maguire, W. Smythe, C. L. Dam, J. D. Scanlon.

The Third Ward's share is nine delegates, divided evenly in all the precincts except the First and Seventh, which get two. Wm. Mullins, F. J. Moffitt, L. Kehoe, W. B. White, J. F. Connors, J. J. McDonald and P. O'Kane are the committeemen here.

The Seventh is the only precinct in the Fourth Ward which does not get two delegates, the total number being thirteen. The committeemen are C. W. Logan, J. F. Kelly, M. J. Kelly, P. Gallagher, T. J. Hopkins, Patrick Haley and J. Harrington.

In the Fifth Ward, each of the seven precincts is allowed one representative, and there the primaries will be conducted by Committeemen J. B. Letter, R. B. Snell, H. C. McPike, J. E. Finnegan, R. M. Fitzgerald, J. M. English and C. L. Smith.

Eleven delegates go to the Sixth Ward, divided so that the First, Second and Seventh Precincts get only one, while the others have two. The committeemen are Andrew McGary, Thos. White, C. D. O'Gara, P. E. Dalton, F. E. Crocker and Martin Ryan.

Only the Sixth and Seventh Precincts in the Seventh Ward get two delegates, the rest by the apportionment being given one each. M. J. Laymance, Jas. Mulgrew, A. M. Belt, D. La Fortune, Henry Moffitt, D. R. F. Dubernet and J. Samuels are the committeemen.

Alameda is allowed fifteen delegates, two in each precinct except the First, Third and Fourth.

Thirteen representatives for the share of Berkeley, where in the Second, Sixth and Seventh one each will be chosen; in the First, Fourth and Fifth two each, and in the Third Precinct four.

In Oakland Township the apportionment gives Ocean View one, Bay three, Peralta, Claremont, Piedmont and Temescal No. 1 one each, and Temescal No. 2 two.

In Eden Township, San Lorenzo is given three; San Leandro No. 1, No. 2 and Haywards No. 2, two each; Castro Valley, Palomares, Mt. Eden No. 1, No. 2, and Haywards No. 3, one each.

Murray Township is allotted twelve delegates all told, divided as follows: Murray, Livermore No. 3 and Pleasanton No. 1, two delegates apiece; Altamont, Dublin, Murray No. 1, Livermore No. 1, Pleasanton No. 2 and Sunol, one each.

Washington Township has only six delegates to elect, one from each of the following towns: Alvarado, Centerville, Niles, Mission, Newark and Washington.

The total number to be named in the county is 143.

The test being used is: "Are you a Democrat and will you support the nominees of the National Democratic ticket and Congressmen and nominees to be named at the Democratic County Convention and to be held in Oakland, Alameda County, on September 19th, 1896?"

The tickets are not all fully prepared, and will not be until tonight, when the clubs will nominate and elect at the same time.

The returns will be taken directly to the County Committee, and will probably be canvassed Friday, the day before the County Convention, which meets in the Tabernacle.

The voting for the first five precincts in the Seventh Ward will take place at 305 East Twelfth street tonight.

The Sixth Precinct Club will meet at Thirteenth avenue and the Seventh Precinct organization at Twenty-third avenue.

The Fusion Committee is working on a new tack at present. If it cannot agree upon selections throughout, the resolutions declaring for fusion will be presented, leaving blank the districts to be apportioned to each party.

When the conventions pass upon the document, a joint committee is to be appointed to report back to the convention the plan of apportioning the offices.

Kennedy Protests.

Editor Tribune—Sir: Permit me to ask what political clubs are for? I had supposed they were to secure the co-operation of as large a number of the members of a party as possible—to aggregate their wisdom, the better to promote harmony and secure success—but it is possible I am mistaken, for I am informed that the friends of one candidate have been meeting from time to time, and have finally concluded that they will ignore the clubs of their party and allow their candidate to name the entire ward delegation, regardless of the wishes of other candidates or of the rank and file of the party, who are expected to do the voting.

The success of this candidate is placed above that of McKinley and Hobart. The man is made greater than his party. It is not good politics, and I beg to call the attention of Major McLaughlin to the matter, and refer him to Messrs. Furnum, Moller et al., and the pure politicians who always want everything open and aboveboard. I protest against the practice, while favoring the candidate.

Respectfully,
L. W. KENNEDY.

The Law to Decide.

A suit to recover $1,100 has been commenced by Fannie Beach against Julius A. Remmel. Plaintiff alleges that on the 16th day of October, 1890, defendant agreed to convey to her a piece of land on the corner of Railroad avenue and St. Charles street, Alameda, for the consideration of $3,100, of which $1,100 was to be paid down and the balance to be paid in monthly installments of $20; that plaintiff did pay the sum of $1,100, but that on September 2, 1891, Remmel served upon the plaintiff a notice to quit and deliver up the possession of the premises, and that the $1,100 has never been refunded.

A Series of Suits.

Ellen C. Sargent this morning commenced the following suits in the Superior Court: To recover from Caroline E. Dwinelle $3,000 lent on a promissory note secured by mortgage on Alameda property; to recover from Mary E. Dwinelle $4,500 lent on a promissory note, secured by mortgage on property in Alameda.

A SPY ON THE LAURADA.

Information Given as to the Armament She Carried.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

HAVANA, Sept. 16.—The band of Juan Dolgado is reported to have burned the farms of Gatera, Chineal and Tiraboque on the Canal, and seven settlements near Santiago de Los Vegas.

The insurgents burned several farms in Havana province because the owners refused to pay the taxes levied by the insurgents. Near Palos, in Matanzas, the insurgents have burned the tobacco plantations of Herculano and Esperanza, causing a loss of $100,000. In the last few days they have also burned a large amount of property near Puerto Principe.

Several soldiers of the battalion of Los Navas, guarding the trocha at Jucaro, have died from sunstroke. The first 1,000 soldiers of the reinforcements recently arrived from Spain, have arrived at Jucaro.

It is reported from Palos, Matanzas, that in consequence of his ungovernable temper and his immoderate drinking, Insurgent Lacret was abandoned by Roloff several days ago.

The steamer Santo Domingo arrived here last night, having on board 20 officers and 750 soldiers of the reinforcements from Spain.

Yesterday the work of transferring the boys from the asylum of Beneficencia to the seminary was commenced while the girls were today removed to the nun's convent in Santa Clara. The sick soldiers are being moved to the asylum of Beneficiencia, (which has been arranged for as a hospital.

There is a report in circulation that Maximo Gomez has left his camp at Guasimas with Agramonte, going in the direction of Santa Clara, to form a junction with Majia and Rodriguez in Santi Spiritus. It is also reported that Rodriguez has arrived in that district.

Plans for a balloon, which it is claimed can be lowered or raised at pleasure without the use of ballast, have been offered to the Government and will be examined by a Commission. The news is confirmed that the insurgent leader Morejon, whose influence in the revolution has been great, has died of wounds received in a skirmish in Matanzas with Colonel Molina.

THE LAURADA'S TRIP.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The Herald this morning publishes the following special correspondence from Kingston, Jamaica, September 6:

All circumstances point to the fact that on her last voyage the steamer Laurada included among her crew a Spanish agent and spy. So far as is known here his identity has not been discovered.

That the Laurada carried a filibustering expedition to Cuba on this trip seems to be beyond all doubt, although there will probably be great difficulty in proving the fact, for the Spanish spy, who, it is now well known, was on board, will hardly care to reveal himself in the witness box.

If the party is known no action will be taken against him and he will not be disposed to carry out to the end the part he has been playing as a hired spy.

The explanation is simply that this man attempted to wreck the vessel or should he appear to swear to the information he possesses regarding the filibustering part of the voyage, he will have to face a charge on this count per contra.

If his identity has really been ascertained no legal action will be taken against him as that might beg the question as to his possible testimony about the landing of the biggest filibustering expedition of modern times.

The facts in connection with the stranding of the steamship at Port Antonio, so far as the Herald's correspondent is able to ascertain are as follows:

"On the arrival of the Laurada at Port Antonio some person unknown gave information to the customs authorities that she had been engaged in a filibustering expedition and that there was a large quantity of rifles still on board, which had not been landed, but which would be put ashore on the return voyage.

"The ship was searched before she proceeded to the outports to take up her cargo of fruit, but the arms were not to be found.

"The informant thereupon secretly promised one of the customs officers that on the vessel's return from the outports he would find means of discovering the secrets in which he was convinced Captain Murphy had concealed the arms, since they had not left the vessel.

"On the night of the first instant, as the Laurada was entering Port Antonio and the Lama was going out, the two vessels passing one another in the deep, but intricate channel, the Laurada had to veer to make way for the outward-bound ship.

"At the critical moment and with a strong current running, the steering gear of the Laurada gave way.

"At that moment the probable effect of the breakdown would have been to throw the Laurada across the Lama's bows and bring about a collision that would have sent the former to the bottom.

"As it happened the current was swifter than the Lama and the Laurada escaped the latter's prow and was swept on the reef.

"By a singular piece of good luck she struck the one spot on the entire length of the reef where she could have struck without having her bottom knocked out.

"Of course to all outward seeming the whole thing had the appearance of an accident. But it was an accident that bids fair to end the days of the Laurada.

"She was placed between collision and being smashed on the coral reef, but escaped both and gently lay her nose into a little bed of soft sand.

"She had to be lightened to get her off and this fact indicates the agency of some deliberate intent, for through it the unkown informer was enabled to keep his word, a quantity of rifles having been found on the vessel this time.

"The result was that Captain Murphy was promptly called up before the resident magistrate and, although the Laurada was so slightly damaged by her contact with the reef that she was able to proceed at once on her voyage, Captain Murphy had to provide recognizance before he could leave the island. He made a cash deposit of £300 to appear on the 29th instant to answer the charge of conveying contraband of war, and was allowed to sail."

DANGERS OF DIPHTHERIA.

The Disease Allowed to Run Unchecked in a Country District.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 16.—The secretary of the Board of Health reports an awful condition of things in a district four miles from West Baden and French Lick Springs, growing out of neglect in treatment of malignant diphtheria.

Altogether there have been seventy-five cases and twenty deaths.

No attempt has been made at quarantining the infected houses and attending physicians were going from house to house without changing clothing.

The secretary has forwarded supplies of anti-toxin and disinfectants and has quarantined West Baden and French Lick Springs against the infected districts.

Throughout the district the people seemed unaware of the dangerous character of the epidemic and whether or not it can be confined to present limits is problematical.

A CONFIRMED CRIMINAL.

Kearney's Dynamite Schemes Have Been Heard of Before.

He Once Had a Plan to Blow Up the Atlantic Liner "Queen."

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—According to a local paper, the arrest of Tynan and Kearney, the dynamite conspirators, is a verification of the statements made years ago by Captain Thomas Phelan of this city, that the two noted prisoners were members of an Irish dynamite propaganda which had headquarters in this country.

Phelan was the first man, it is said, to mention the name of Kearney as an active dynamite fulminator and as is known he nearly paid with his life for giving out this information and the charge that O'Donovan Rossa was a traitor.

Captain Phelan, who is a broad swordsman of note, was at the time a city official in Kansas City. He went to New York at the time of the Fenian excitement and finally to Europe, in search of information relative to the movement of the men connected with the plots then existing. He became acquainted with Kearney, and to him Kearney told of his intention to place an infernal machine on the Atlantic steamer Queen, set to explode two hours after the steamer should reach Liverpool.

Phelan confided the information to the "Queen's" officials and later told of the occurrence to a New York paper and implicated Rossa.

This interview, the giving away of Kearney's name and the implied charge of traitor against Rossa was what caused Phelan's attempted assassination in New York city later.

PANAMA POINTERS.

Celebration of the Breaking Away From Spanish Rule.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A dispatch to the Herald from Panama says:

Central American residents in the Isthmus celebrated the 75th anniversary of independence from Spanish rule yesterday.

The delegates appointed by San Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua met at Amapala to ratify the treaty of Amapala made some months ago by President Gutierez, Bonilla and Zelaya at that port. The object of the treaty is a union of the three Republics into one, to be called Republica Mayor de Central America. Costa Rica and Guatemala refused to enter the union.

The Herald's correspondent in Managua telegraphs that the Constitutional Assembly has nominated President Zelaya as a candidate for the Presidential term from 1896 to 1902.

The Herald's correspondent in Guayaquil says that Alfaro has promulgated a decree convoking a convention to meet October 7th.

Society Will Turn Out to Enjoy Madame Sans Gene

The sale of seats for "Madame Sans Gene" at the Macdonough is of a nature to make it more than certain that the company will play to big houses during its engagement here. The nights set apart for it are Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next and society evidently intends to turn out in full force.

Some of the costumes worn are very elaborate. In the great second act and court scene Miss Kidder has chosen cream white lustless satin, which is truly Napoleonic in richness and splendor, and it is safe to say no more magnificent stage gown has ever been seen in this country. It is in Empire style with a train fully three yards long covered with almost hand embroidery in gold, silver, pearls and iridescent spangles. The pattern is in an oak pleaf which forms a clinging vine around the edge of the low cut bodice headed by gold and silver cord. The high Directoire collar is of white net heavily studded in gold and immense pearls, and in this the same leaf like pattern prevails. Four rows of big pearls fastened by diamond clasps is what the Dutchess wears for a necklace, and a small tiara of diamonds crown her red gold hair.

The court mantle, which forms part of this costume, during the court reception is of richest scarlet velvet of a most peculiar shade. One entire afternoon was spent by Miss Kidder, her friends and milliners in choosing the exact and historical shade of red, and by studying a description of one of Empress Josephine's gowns it was finally secured. The mantle reaches to the edge of the three-yard train, and has a border of hand embroidery in gold twelve inches wide.

THE OAKLAND.

Friday evening Court United States Order of Foresters will hold a benefit at the Oakland Theater. Tickets can be procured from members of the order and exchanged at the box office for reserved seats. "The Iron King" has proven a strong melo-dramatic attraction and good houses are in order. Through the illness of Carl Birch, who will again be seen next week in the role of heavies, Tilletson Boyce endeavors to sustain the character of Melvin Thornton. With this exception the remainder of the company are deserving of the highest tribute for the clever manner in which they sustain their parts. Next week "The Commodore," a strong marine melo-drama, is underlined.

The Burden of Poverty Was Too Great for Fred Mauerhan.

Fred Mauerhan, a sixteen-year-old boy chose death to poverty. Last night he placed a 38 caliber revolver to his head and sent a bullet into his brain.

He was employed as a driver at Yeager & Baery's dairy and supported his mother and three younger children, his father being a cripple and unable to work. The family lived near the dairy at Diamond, and the death of the lad leaves them destitute.

The boy chose the front room in his employers' house for his death, and carefully dressed himself in his best clothes before firing the fatal shot.

He had many times been heard to say that death was preferable to a life of poverty, and undoubtedly despondency caused his act.

The body is now at the morgue where Justice of the Peace Lawrence, acting for Coroner Baldwin will hold an inquest at 8 o'clock this evening.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

John J. Valentine, President of Wells, Fargo & Co., entered the employ of that concern in Virginia City, Nev., about thirty-four years ago, as a booking clerk for their stage lines; and his promotion to his present position over the heads of several older expressmen than himself is purely the result of merit and business training. Mr. Valentine made a speech before the Ebell Society of Oakland on Thursday, in which he declared that "Governments cannot create values," for which he has centuries of history to sustain his position.—Los Angeles Times.

Oakland's Board of Trade has determined to enter upon a crusade of beautifying that city. The members have shown level headedness by determining to build boulevards and improve and beautify parks.—Stockton Mail.

LOOKED LIKE LYNCHING.

Infuriated Chicago Workmen Attack an Unfortunate Teamster.

His Horse Had Knocked Down a Number of Their Comrades.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—An infuriated mob of laborers battled with the police in South Chicago at 6 o'clock last evening for the possession of a wagon driver whom they threatened with lynching because his runaway horse knocked down several of the crowd.

After a fierce struggle, in which clubs and stones were freely use, the driver, Peter Zisliski, was rescued from his assailants. In addition to the half dozen men trampled beneath the hoofs of the frantic horse, a number of the crowd was severely beaten by the police.

A passing engine frightened the horses which had been standing in front of a house and he dashed down the street toward a crowd of workingmen who were leaving the Steel Company's works.

Zisliksy managed to overtake the runaway and clamber into the wagon but could not control the horse, which swept into the crowd, scattering it right and left.

A dozen went down before the frenzied animal, many of those who escaped its hoofs being struck by the wagon.

In an instant Zisliksy was surrounded by a crowd. In vain he explained his helplessness, but his captors seized him, threw him to the ground and were crying for a rope when the police, having been alarmed, appeared on the scene and Zisliksy was rescued after a fierce fight.

OLD AND PROSPEROUS.

The West Oakland Loan Association in Good Shape.

The shareholders of the West Oakland Mutual Loan Association, now the oldest institution of the kind in California, held their twenty-first annual meeting Monday evening, at their hall, corner of Seventh and Willow streets, West Oakland.

Secretary A. Sharboro read his twenty-first annual report, which shows that the association has had a remarkably prosperous career. In twenty-one years it has assisted 517 members to acquire homes for their families in San Francisco and Alameda Counties, and in that long period of time it has never foreclosed a single mortgage. It has only acquired lately from a delinquent stockholder a small house and lot on Campbell street, which cost the association $850, which the officers expect to sell without sustaining any loss whatever. The amount loaned to members since the organization of the institution was $578,048.80. Four hundred and twenty-four stockholders have already repaid their loans, aggregating $447,-183.39; there still remaining ninety-three borrowers, who owe the association $130,-862, which they are rapidly paying off by monthly installments.

The association has also paid out to shareholders who have found use for their money in profitable investments the sum of $697,273.52, including $156,993.77 earnings, showing the interest received by the withdrawal members to have been between 8 and 12 per cent per annum in accordance with the age of the shares so surrendered.

The institution continues, even in these hard times, when many banks have stopped making loans, to help its members to buy or build homes, the interest being still kept at 6 per cent per annum and the premium 50 cents per share, which makes the monthly payments to the borrower $12.50 for every $1,000 net cash received by the same.

These small monthly installments enable families of thrift and frugality to acquire their own homes for about the same amount that they should have to pay for like accommodations in rented houses.

The stockholders were much pleased at the report presented, and by unanimous vote re-elected the following officers and directors:

President, A. Merle; Vice President, C. H. Spaulding; Treasurer, Wm. Wagner; Secretary, A. Sharboro; Attorney for Alameda County, Land Title Co. of Oakland; Attorney for San Francisco, D. Friedenrich, and in addition to the first three named gentlemen, C. S. Marlin, Aug. Fick, Jos. Schnelly, G. D. Welch, C. A. Malm and G. B. Cevasco as Directors.

Secretary A. Sharboro gave notice that on the 1st of October he would remove his office in San Francisco to the bank building, No. 518 Montgomery street, formerly occupied by Sather & Co.'s Bank.

The books were then opened for subscription to 1,000 shares of stock of the twentieth series, and many shares have already been taken.

NEEDS RENOVATING.

The Supervisors Are Preparing to Fix Up the Court House.

Supervisor Church said today that it is the intention of the Board of Supervisors to give the Court House an overhauling in the interior, and to make some needed changes of a sanitary character in the County Jail.

The work in the Court House will, in the main, consist of renovation, of which it is generally admitted the place stands in need. The matting in the halls is old, and in many places sodden with usage. The walls are grimy, and in some of the chambers the need of better ventilation is apparent. It has been suggested that, with respect to the court-rooms of Judge Ellsworth and Judge Greene, a better system of governing the lighting facilities should be devised. Ordinarily, light is a desideratum of a court-room, but too much of it is an unmixed evil. That the rooms in question have too much light is apparent, because, when unrestricted, the rays pour in through the stained windows on two sides with almost dazzling intensity.

The Keeler Reading.

Mr. Chas. A. Keeler, one of the brightest and most promising of our younger California writers, will read at the Unitarian Church, corner of Fourteenth and Castro streets, next Friday evening, his poem, "The Promise of the Ages." Mr. Keeler is the author of a number of literary productions, which have met with much recognition. He is about to depart for the East on a brief journey connected with the publication of his writings. The Starr King Fraternity has this recital in charge. There will be musical illustration.

SPORTING NEWS

Football Is the All-Absorbing Topic Just at Present.

MAKE-UP OF THE TEAMS.

The U. C. Will Have a Strong Club to Combat for Honors.

READY FOR DUCK-SHOOTING.

Sportsmen Will Soon Seek Preserves in the Country.

The football enthusiasts are assuming their war paint and have prepared a fine schedule of games for the winter.

The State shoot at inanimate targets takes place in San Jose on October 3d and 4th.

The blue-rock shooting season has practically closed and now the sportsmen are looking toward the preserves for duck hunting.

The big bicycle road race is billed for Sunday, October 11th. Many local riders are now in training.

Yachtsmen are talking of another race between the crack flyers, Catherine and Fawn.

A meeting of the Los Banos Gun Club will be held Friday evening.

THE UMPIRE.

Football has come to the front in good style during the past week. All the college athletes are interested in the sport and the club men are not far behind, though they have not the same opportunity to practice as the others have. Then, too, many of the players are working until dark on week days, leaving only Sunday in which to meet on the gridiron. Nevertheless some good players are on the club rolls and a little later in the season more time will be devoted to practical work.

Baseball has not enjoyed its former favor and it is not probable that it will again be any decided attraction this season, though the league games still go on.

Tennis is picking up somewhat and the yachtsmen are improving lost opportunities of the season for racing and aquatic events.

The blue-rock shooting has practically ceased, though there will be one or two final events yet.

The winter will see horse racing, duck shooting, football and some tennis, and will pretty effectually shut out cycling, baseball, target practice, cricket and other outdoor sports which have been almost the sole attractions of the past few months.

* * *

The gun clubs are already beginning to prepare for the coming season on the preserves, which promises to be one of great sport. W. D. Heitmann, president of the Los Banos Club, has issued a notice to members to meet in R. S. Leckie's office at 8 o'clock Friday night to formulate plans for the hunts which are to come.

Now that Corbett has said that he will fight Fitzsimmons as soon as he gets through with Sharkey, the talkers are circulating all kinds of rumors, the latest being to the effect that a huge fake is being perpetrated upon the American public and that the whole business is merely part of a scheme to gain advertising for the trio, who it is said will ultimately appear together in a big theatrical combine.

This is the talk, but it has been the same old story ever since there was any possibility of a fight. I suppose, if two or three more gladiators shied their castors into the ring, it would be announced that the job had grown to such proportions that a big traveling circus would be the outcome.

It is money that talks, and as it appears there is some of that commodity in sight already, it is reasonable to suppose that a match will be made between the champion and his two understudies.

They are not doing half the chattering that the public is lead to believe they are. It is the class of satellites which thrive on the atmosphere of the ring and are ready to hold the bottle for anyone who will furnish them a drink, that make the noise and give the public food for gossip. The principals themselves are keeping quiet and probably know what they are doing when they put up forfeit money.

Let us have a fight or let's not, but for goodness sake break away on this idle and really foolish talk.

D. H. Kenaga of Port Townsend, Wash., has received the following letter from a friend in Yokohama, relative to the oft-repeated Japanese bicycle rumor:

"I have visited the oldest bicycle factory in Japan, and had an interview with the proprietor. He gave me a printed price list of all the cycles he is now putting out. The retail prices varied from forty-five to one hundred and ten yen. He informed me that his factory is unable to supply the demand in Japan at these rates. At wholesale he could not offer 10 per cent reduction. There is a factory in Tokio which I have not yet heard from, but owing to the large demand for wheels in this country, (a large number being imported from America and Europe), I believe the Japanese are not now exporting, and never have exported cycles to America. The great danger on this side is not from the Japanese alone, but from foreigners who may here establish factories for the purpose of flooding foreign markets. In a few years the country will be all opened to foreign enterprise. The Japs have the will and facilities to compete with foreigners, but they lack in enterprise, originality and organization. In due time these drawbacks may be corrected, but it will not be for years to come."

There are several rules to follow if the rider who wishes to thoroughly enjoy his journeys. The men and boys who are employed in the workshops will find it an excellent plan to follow the advice given in this article. Five o'clock is the right hour for the alarm clock to sound its warning, and no time is to be lost, for no wheelman should start off on a trip, be it ever so short, without some food to act as a stimulant till breakfast time. A bowl of bread and milk serves as an excellent repast, and it will provide nourishment for several hours. A half hour after rising the rider should be able to silently slide his wheel from the woodshed and make for the country side. The green hills are rapidly taking on a brownish tint. The frost is on the ground and a chill is in the air. To prevent cold a thick sweater should be used, but as the sun comes up this may be discarded and strapped to the handle bars.

YACHT TALK.

Another Race May Be Arranged Between the Catherine and Fawn.

There is talk of another yacht race between the Fawn and Catherine, each of which has won a victory over the other.

In the races of the Inter-Club Yachting Association, held on Admission Day, the Catherine captured the Macdonough cup, at the same time beating her rival by six minutes and seventeen seconds on the first leg of the triangle.

Now it is asserted that a professional seaman was employed on the Catherine and the owners of the Fawn have consequently filed a protest with the association. If the charges prove true the Catherine stands a good chance of being disqualified for the rules are strict with regard to amateur racing. At all events the Catherine will receive another challenge and it will probably be accepted.

In the meantime Admiral Von Schmidt of the California Yacht Club, who owns the Whirlwind, has challenged either yacht to a race on the triangular course.

ON THE GRIDIRON.

The St. Mary's College Football Team Scores a Victory.

The second eleven football team of St. Mary's College defeated the Peralta High School team in a spirited game of football Saturday.

In the first half Donovan for St. Mary's scored a touchdown, but failed to kick a goal. The second half resulted in two touchdowns and goals for the college chaps.

Holmes and Flood, the halves for St. Mary's, did fine work, while Foster and Brune, for the High School boys, held up their end well.

The make up of the teams was as follows:

St. Marys.	Positions.	High Schools
Hughes	Center	Coblentz
Hallahan	right tackle	F. Magena
Bender	left tackle	Melbert
Huff	left end	Beamer
Flanagan (cptn)	quarter	J. Magona
Flood	left half	Foster
Holmes	fullback	Sharon

Score: 16—0. Goals kicked—Two by Holmes.

Umpire—F. Frick.

THE SHOOTING SEASON.

The Final Match of the Empire Gun Club at Alameda.

The Empire Gun Club held a lively shoot at Alameda Point Sunday, which had been termed the final rally for the season.

The event of the day was the final club shoot at twenty-five birds, as a result of which $150 was distributed among five classes of competitors. The results were as follows:

First class, for $50—Stewart 22, first money; Billington 21, second money; Mendenhall 19, Leeds 18, Debenham 17.

Second class, for $40—Judd 20, King 20, divided first money; Sears 19, Luheke 19, Fischer 19, divided second money.

Third class, for $30—Newton 20, first money; Quinton 19, second money; Andrus 18, Anderson 16, Young 16.

Fourth class, for $20—Kerrison 20, first money; Vandall 18 and Javete 13, second money; Trilby 16, Goodwin 12.

Fifth class, for $10—C. Fischer 20, first money; Grubb 16 (withdrew in favor of Paul); Paul 15, second money; Eisfelt 11, Colt 6. The following extra men scored: Johns 20, Dabrough 11, Olsen 19, Neustadter 8, Palmer 14, Friedlander 13.

This, with a few other matches, wound up the shooting for the season, which lasts from March to September, though during winter the preserves on the Sonoma marsh are the scene of action during duck season.

On the 20th of this month the club will shoot against the Garden City Club in San Jose and on the 4th and 5th of October, will enter the Inanimate Target Association's tournament.

THE STATE SHOOT.

Preparations Well Underway for the Big Affair.

The State tournament of the California Inanimate Target Association which takes place at San Jose on October 3d and 4th, promises to be the most largely attended event of the kind ever held in the State.

It is expected that over 200 men will face the traps and between 40,000 and 50,000 blue rocks will be broken.

The Garden City Cyclers' Gun Club has $400 cash and $500 worth of merchandise already subscribed as prizes, and the California Inanimate Target Association will add $800 cash.

Shooting grounds have been prepared on the Pothemus tract. Five sets of electric pull traps will be provided. The trappers, judges and referees will all be competent men, and nothing will be lacking in the arrangements to make the shoot a success. The entries will be made on the night of October 2d at the Hotel Vendome, which is to be the headquarters of the association during the tournament. On the evening of October 4th a banquet will be tendered the visitors at the Vendome, at which the prizes will be distributed.

SAN RAFAEL RACES.

Oakland Riders Win Several of the Events.

The San Rafael bicycle races Sunday attracted a large crowd to the seaside town, among whom were many Oaklanders.

C. D. Bates, Jr., the speedy Reliance rider, won the mile handicap, with G. A. Wyman of the Acme Club a close second. The prize was a silver cup.

In the five-mile handicap, E. W. Decker a scratch man, won the time prize, in 14 minutes 24 2-5 seconds.

The final race of the day was disastrous for three riders. Noonan of Santa Rosa broke his pedal when within a short distance of the tape, and his wheel struck that of Decker, the Acme man. The two took a hard fall and Henry Noonan, riding hard up in the rear, crashed into the prostrate men. All three were badly bruised up and had to be carried to the club house.

GOALS AND KICKERS.

Many Candidates for Positions on the U. C. Team.

Monday afternoon all the candidates for football honors at the State University met on the campus, where Captain Ransome lined them up and gave them a preliminary trial. Those who donned the blue and gold suits were: Haskell, Bender, Kennedy, Anderson, McNutt, Hopper, Hall, Julian, Hall, Carr, Greisberg, Craig, Spense, Birdsell, Toland, McDermot, Ebright, Powers, Kaarsburg, Thane, Perly, Peck, Miller, Powers, Graham, Barnes, Riley, Foote, Smythe, Allen, Cormish, Whipple and Stewart.

FOOTBALL GAMES.

The Schedule for the Big Events Is Now Ready.

The schedule for the football season at Central Park is as follows:

October 3.....Berkeley vs. Reliance
October 10.....Stanford vs. Olympic October 17.....Berkeley vs. Olympic
October 24.....Stanford vs. Reliance
October 31.....Berkeley vs. Reliance
November 7.....Stanford vs. Olympic
November 14 .Berkeley-Stanford freshmen
November 21.....Reliance vs. Olympic
November 26.....Stanford vs. Berkeley

RULES ARE CHANGED.

A Slight Difference in Football Tactics for This Year.

There are several changes in the football rules of this year which are now consolidated into one set. Momentum plays are practically prevented; mass plays held more in check; the chances for a fair catch of a punted ball made much easier; interference with the center rush and the ball during an attempted snap-back discouraged by the introduction of a more stringent prohibitory rule; and a quarterback kick, where the ball is sent forward of the line of scrimmage is interpreted as giving the opponents a fair and equal chance at the ball.

There are other minor changes, but they do not affect the play or change in the least the appearance of the game.

"A fair catch," to quote the new rule, "is a catch made direct from a kick by one of the opponents, or from a punt-out by one of the same side, provided the man while making the catch makes a mark with his heel and no other of his side has touched the ball. If he be interfered with by an opponent who is off side, or if he be thrown after catching the ball, unless he has advanced beyond the mark, he shall be given fifteen yards."

This fifteen-yard penalty will, it is thought, effectually prevent interference with attempted fair catches.

The rule regulating momentum and mass plays says in part:

Before the ball is put in play in a scrimmage should any player of the side which has the ball take more than one step in any direction he must come to a full stop before the ball is put in play. Exception—One man of the side having the ball may be in motion toward his own goal without coming to a full stop before the ball is put in play. When the ball is put in play at least five players must be on the line of scrimmage.

Five yards are given for interfering with the ball on the center rush during an attempted snap-back.

THE CHAMPIONS COMING.

Carr Neel and Other Tennis Cracks Will Be Here Soon.

Carr B. Neel, the champion tennis player, who has won fresh laurels in the East, will start on his way to California on the 20th to participate in the tennis tournament to be held at San Rafael, commencing Friday, September 25th and continuing for three days.

He will come in company with W. A. Larned and R. D. Wrenn and the California Lawn Tennis Association will bear the expenses.

Carr Neel is an Oakland man, and went East in 1893 with W. H. Taylor Jr. and C. P. Hubbard and was the only one who could stand up against the Eastern men. He secured the championship from S. P. Chase last summer and won two "round-robin" tournaments without losing a match.

Oaklands Loses Again.

The Oaklands fell down again at Santa Cruz Sunday, when they were defeated by the Electrics, a local club of that place. The score was 2 to 3 and throughout the game it was exciting and replete with good playing on both sides.

After the game the Oaklanders were royally entertained at the Pacific Ocean House.

Oakland Wins at Stockton.

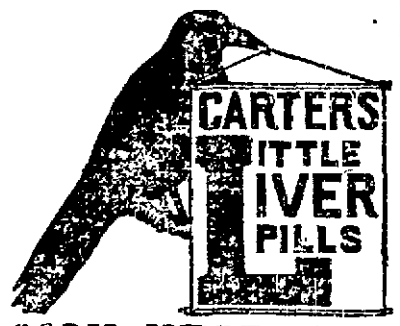

In the bicycle races at Stockton on Admission Day the first heat of the half-mile dash for amateurs was won by Percy Mott, Reliance, Golinda, Acme, second. The second heat brought out Lefevre, Acme, first and in the final, Mott won, with Crafts and Hamlin second and third.

The Big Road Race.

Several of Oakland's crack riders are in training for the big road race which is scheduled to take place on Sunday, October 11th. The Road Racing Association will meet on Saturday evening, October 3d, and complete all the details, though already Chairman Stratton has matters well shaped.

Reliance Shoot.

The final shoots in both the free for all match and the club medal match, of the Reliance Gun Club take place Sunday, September 20th, at the club grounds. Shooting will begin promptly at 10 A. M.

NEIGHBORLY NOTES.

SOME PHYSICAL POINTERS.

The Faculty Starts In Its Crusade Against Rushes.

CO-EDS ARE CALLED ON.

General Gleanings of Interest in the College Town.

BERKELEY, Sept. 16.—The University of California has some unusually large men in the Freshman class. Professor Walter Magee of the Physical Culture Department has completed the measurements of the male students of the class of '00, and is surprised at the extraordinary average shown. He has measured 260 men and says that they are on an average taller and heavier than any of the preceding classes. There are eighteen men in the class over six feet in height. The average weight is 153.6 pounds, and the average height 5 feet 10½ inches.

FRESHMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

The Freshman class of the University held a hotly contested election of class officers yesterday afternoon, which resulted in the election of the following officers: William E. Sauer of Berkeley as President; Robert Collins of San Francisco, First Vice President; Miss Alice Rooney of San Francisco, Second Vice President; Warren Davis of Belmont, Secretary, and W. K. White of San Francisco Treasurer.

During a Freshman class meeting yesterday a notice was received from President Kellogg ordering that back stop rushes be refrained from in the future. This order is probably the forerunner of an edict prohibiting all rushes.

RUSHING CO-EDS CENSURED.

At a meeting of the Associated Women Students yesterday, a set of resolutions was presented by Miss Grace Crabb and Miss Grace Dibble, condemning co-ed participation in rushes. The resolutions called forth a hot discussion. Some of the young women thought they were too severe in their condemnation, and others that they were not severe enough. It was finally decided to table the resolutions, and the meeting adjourned.

A NEW WOMAN DEBATE.

The Citizens' Suffrage Association of Berkeley held a meeting yesterday and discussed at some length the effect the ballot will have on woman's position and whether she may serve on a jury or not. Mesdames Chick, Weed and others who have resided in suffrage States warmly advocated the expediency of having women as jurymen. The various officers read the annual reports. Mrs. Carlsle reported the precinct work as being in excellent condition.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ELECTION.

The annual election of officers of the Alumni Association of the State University will occur next Saturday evening. There are over 1,000 members of the Alumni Association. W. R. Davis of Oakland is prominently mentioned for President to succeed President A. F. Morrison, who positively declines to serve for a third term. The meeting will be held in the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art in San Francisco.

GENERAL GOSSIP.

President Jordan of Stanford University visited the State University yesterday.

The Knights of Honor held an informal celebration in Odd Fellows' Hall last evening.

A semi-annual meeting of the Ladies' Presbyterial of Alameda County is being held in the Allston Way Presbyterian Church today.
